Dedication

... when I entered the seventh grade as a naive twelve-year-old, I was worried that maybe M.B.A. wasn't the right place for me. The school's reputation for a rigorous curriculum preceded itself, and I had my doubts about my ability to succeed here. However, when I walked into Mr. Novak's seventh period science class the first day, my outlook on M.B.A. changed for the better. Mr. Novak's class showed me that learning did not have to be the terrible, punishing experience I thought it would be, but that learning could be fun and interesting, too.

In all his years at M.B.A., Mr. Novak has instilled in his students his own personal warmth that has shaped their characters. From his sharp sense of humor, to his understanding of the student's perspective, to his cross-country coaching, Mr. Novak has been a true asset to M.B.A. Speaking on behalf of the entire M.B.A. community, I would like to extend to Mr. Novak our sincerest gratitude for his many years of humble, altruistic service to the school and to wish him the best in the coming years.

Preface

The purpose of any yearbook is to record not only the images and events of a year, but also the sense of community and general character of the school. Indeed, the students attending M.B.A. this year form a unique group with its own collective memories, a group which, after graduation, will never again reunite in quite the same way. It is my hope that as we look at these pages in the future, they will remind us of our teachers, our special times, and most importantly our old friends who helped make us what we are today.

I've conquered the past the future is here at last
I stand at the entrance to a new world I CAN see

A shot rings out in the Memphis sky
they took your life
they could not take your pride.

the proportions are just right yet the dark cauldron a vapor misty and short it becomes small, good, infamous in a breath of time

When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. Now we see but a poor reflection; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love.

There are places I remember all my life,
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better
Some have gone and some remain.

All these places had their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall . . .
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
In my life I've loved them all.

Varsity Football

The 1988 Big Red season began optimistically on August 1, "Test Day," a day during which all players compete in various events. Two weeks of two-a-day practices followed — indeed, the most grueling part of the football season. It would be three scorching-hot weeks before the first regular season game. We played our pre-season games against David Lipscomb, Columbia, and Brentwood Academy; then the Big Red travelled to the Town-and-Country game at Vanderbilt. After this event, Coach Owen and his staff prepared us for Murfreesboro Riverdale, led by captains Drew Robison, Sheldon Griffin, Worcester Bryan, and Brooks Smith. Anxious and ready, at last the regular season got under way.

MBA 24 Riverdale 20

The Big Red opened the 1988 season with an incredible comeback against Riverdale. At the half Riverdale led 20-7. The first three quarters poked along for the Big Red; then with about five minutes left in the fourth quarter, the magic started. Chris Vlahos intercepted a pass and returned it to the Riverdale twenty yard-line — but we didn't score. Riverdale then took over, our defense held, and in a surprising move, Riverdale took a safety; score 20-9. On the following drive, the Big Red scored a touchdown, and with the two-point conversion pulled within three points, 20-17. With less than two minutes left, Riverdale had the ball, planning to run out the clock. Their quarterback fumbled, MBA recovered, and from thirty yards out we went on to score the clinching TD.

MBA 7 Whites Creek 10

The Big Red met a great challenge the second week: the Cobras from Whites Creek had a very fast offense and strong defense. Our offense drove well throughout the game, but some early season inconsistency proved to be the crucial difference. The defense played superbly the first half, letting up a bit in the second half. Offensively, Dan Brooks scored the only touchdown, led by the blocking of John Smithwick, Lindsey "Roy" Cooper, and Mike Seshul. The defense was led by Billy Frist, Brad Bishop, Brooks Smith, Worcester "Bryan Worcester" Bryan, David Trainer and Sheldon "The Bull Factor" Griffin. Everyone played well, but the Cobras still managed to kick a forty-yard field goal to win the game with no time left. When the dust cleared, the Big Red suffered its first man-creating loss.

MBA 33      Beech 0

Bouncing back the next week, the Big Red trounced rival Beech. With about everyone scoring, including Drew Healy, Dan Brooks, Robert Echols, Richard Arendale, and Alex Waddey, the offense operated well and came up with the big plays. The game was a rout, MBA playing very convincingly. On an interception and touchdown by Alex Waddey, Chris Vlahos blindsided some poor bloke, who, if he could remember what happened, would never forget it. Brad Bishop also intercepted a pass on the way to his morale-building win.

MBA 10      Overton 7

The next game against the Overton Bobcats was a tight one. The Big Red came out confidently and scored first on a Robison pass. Again, the defense played outstandingly, allowing only four first downs the whole game. An errant judgment call, however, by one of the Big Red linebackers (who lined up to stop a quarterback "sneak") led to a stunning sixty-two yard Overton scamper on fourth-and-one. Toward the end of the game, the scored tied 7-7, with defensive standouts Alden Smith, John Smithwick, Billy Fisher, David Trainer, Jeremy Russell, Brooks Smith, and Worcester Bryan holding the Bobcats, the Big Red drove but failed to score a touchdown. With little time left, "Yippie" (Patrick Harkleroad), kicked a clutch forty-two yard field goal to win the game. MBA had come back for the second time in the young season.

MBA 17      Cookeville 6

Meeting the Cookeville Cavaliers in Cookeville worried the Big Red. Beating them 42-7 the previous year, we felt that they would come out fighting mad with their great size and good speed. Yet the Cavaliers were unable to stop the Big Red Machine. MBA had the lead 10-0 at the half; then it began to rain. Playing on the soaked Tennessee Tech turf was not a beautiful thing; the bottom dropped out of the sky, a real gully-washer, our locker room flooded, and half-time was prolonged. The following half was played sloppily — no one could hold the ball or do much of anything. When the mud settled, the Big Red once again came out victorious, 17- 7.

MBA 34      Brentwood 0

MBA returned home the next week but without injured quarterback Drew Robison. MBA scored first with Dan Brooks' one-yard run. Junior quarterback Billy Crawford found Alex Waddey for a forty-four yard touchdown pass. Dan Brooks later added another touchdown on the ground to end the first half scoring. In the second half, after a mishandled field goal snap, Alden Smith rolled out and found Dan Brooks for a ten-yard TD reception. Sophomore quarterback De Thompson produced the last score on a nine-yard pass to Drew Healy. Sophomore tailback Robert Echols gained 139 yards on nineteen carries following the monumental blocks of John Smithwick, Kelsey Fitzpatrick, Mike Seshul, Lindsey Cooper, and John Moore. Although senior standout line-backer Brooks Smith left the game with a knee injury, the Big Red defense overwhelmed Brentwood to produce another shutout.

Robison zeros in.

MBA 21      Hillwood 7

After a disappointing first half that ended in a 7-7 tie with a stubborn Hillwood team, the MBA offense managed two second-half touchdowns on the running of Robert Echols and Drew Robison. The defense remained sturdy in the second half, undoing the Hilltopper's passing attack with six interceptions and only twenty-six total passing yards. MBA was now 6-1 and readied itself for its next confrontation.

MBA 7      Ryan 24

In the year's toughest game, archrival Father Ryan hosted MBA at Vanderbilt stadium: the result was a disheartening loss that spoiled the Big Red's hopes for a playoff berth. The lone Big Red score was on an eleven-yard touchdown pass from Drew Robison to Bo Healy. Though the offense could move the ball on occasion, the Ryan defense held us when they had to. As one MBA fan put it: "In life one can learn a lot from losing — but not from losing to Ryan."

MBA 44      Pearl-Cohn 0

The next week marked MBA's homecoming celebration and the team regrouped to trounce Pearl-Cohn. Junior standout Alden Smith took the opening kickoff eighty-seven yards for the first score. Minutes later sophomore place-kicker Patrick Harkleroad kicked a twenty-nine yard field goal. Then Drew Robison got in the act connecting with sophomore Tate McDaniel for a twenty-six yard touchdown pass. Running backs Rabin Nimmo, Dan Brooks, Billy Crawford, and Chris Hall all ran for touchdowns, allowing the Big Red to cruise to an easy victory.

MBA 7 Hillsboro 0

MBA ended a fine football season with a close 7-0 shutout over rival Hillsboro. With a late drive in the first half, Alden Smith plunged in from three yards out for the only score of the game. The Big Red's defense turned in a super performance the whole game, stopping Hillsboro late in the fourth quarter on a game-threatening drive.

MBA finished its football season 8-2: once again, Coach Owen, Coach Elliot, Coach Regen, and Coach Downey inspired their players to play up to and above their capability against teams that, on paper, outweighed and outran us, but never outplayed us. The team not only worked hard, but also had a lot of fun, and so did its supporters. Everyone, the players and fans alike, came together once again to complete a great football season.

Chris Hall flees from the savage hoard for extra yardage.

Dan Brooks strikes an epic pose as he envisions the unconquerable 1989 Big Red.

Junior Varsity Football

Even though the J.V. spends its time preparing the starting animals for Friday night games, the non-starters do have their moments in the sun. This year the Big Red J.V. played a total of five games with the "J.V.'s" of the other teams in the district. The Big Red compiled a record of 4-1, bedazzling the opponent with flawless execution. Coach Elliot joyously exclaimed that never did he see a "Fullback-Pass Run" executed with such genius as in the Overton game. As he confessed, "I was blind with ecstasy!"

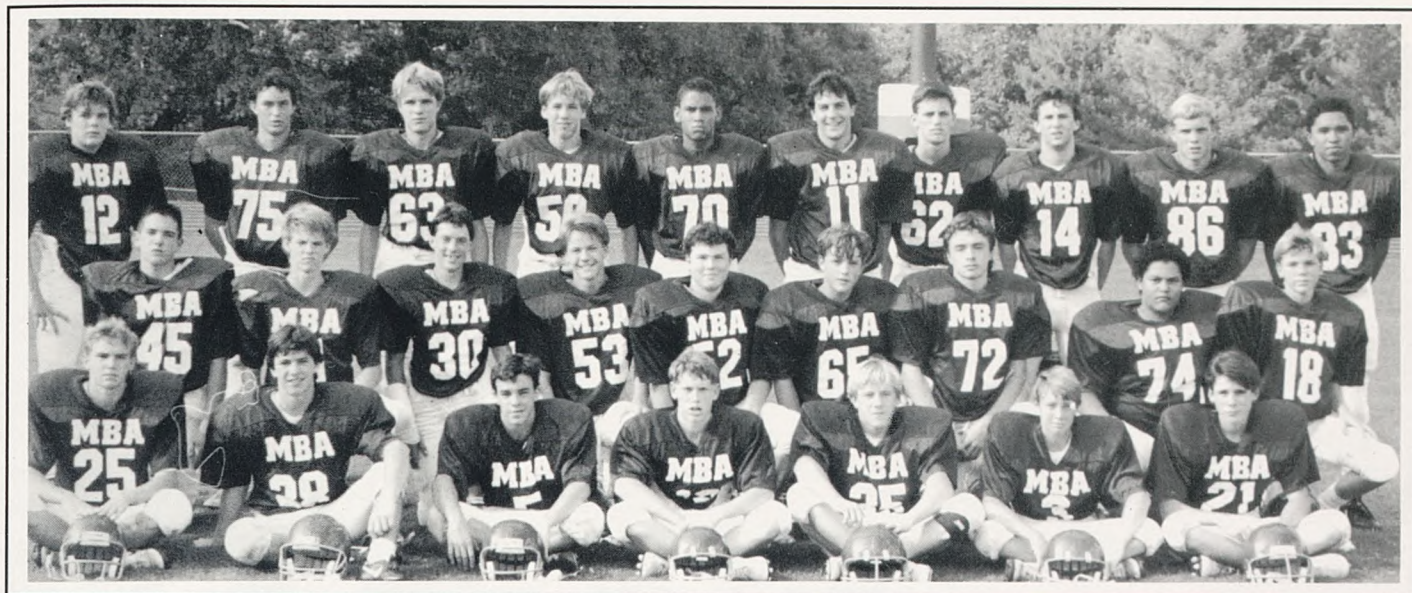

The J.V. outscored its opponents 60-39, beating Hillsboro (8-0), Overton (14-6), Whites Creek (15-8), and Ryan (10-0). Robert Echols (TB) and Chris Vlahos (FB) played key roles until prompted to the Varsity just before the Hillwood loss. De "Red Shoes" Thompson led the team at quarterback, devouring the toasty corners of the opponents, connecting with David Mason, "Jumpin'" Drew Healy, Todd Foust, and Tate McDaniel every game. Billy (Grrrrr/what's a snap?) Crawford was the glue that held the team together in that he played every position on the field but kicker. Keith "Slushpuppy" McCarty traded off with Vlahos at fullback and was a Monster of the Midway at rover. The secondary (Arendale, Foust, Mason and Healy) were the ferocious hitters backing up Jeff Lundstrom and Matt Poe, the linebackers.

The Hillwood game, the only loss suffered by the aspiring professionals, was quite controversial. The J.V., preparing to up the score by seven, fumbled the ball into the hands of the opponent's oblivious cornerback whereupon he ran ninety-six yards for a touchdown. Thus the score experienced a fourteen-point reversal and the Big Red could not come back. The game, however, was a moral victory due to the fact that Adin Lara knocked the Hillwood running back into East Egypt on the last play of the game. One of the backs summed up the hit: "Man!"

The varsity should be looking forward to the future: the trenches should be excited to see the line of Steven Anderson, Rob Lentz, Jeffrey Buntin, and Richard Cummins, all true competitors.

The 1988 freshman football team began the season on a Thursday afternoon in September. The Frosh destroyed the Stratford Spartans to open a successful season. The powerful freshman football team continued their season the following week, taking an archrival, Whites Creek. The team gave up what was to be their only loss of the season to the Cobras (6-0) in a hard-fought double overtime. With the pushing offense led by Joe Underwood, the freshman averaged the previous week's loss, however, by beating the Irish from Father Ryan. The freshmen continued to win the next three weeks with wins over Hillwood, Pearl-Cohn, and Hillsboro. Excellent plays came consistently from Tiger Harris, Shad Weaver, and Bo Bartholomew. The season ended for the freshmen on a cold, rainy October afternoon. The freshmen pulled out a win against Overton with a tremendous defensive stand on the goal line in the second overtime. The Frosh finished with a 6-1 record and a 2nd place finish in the city. Congratulations to Coach Forehand, Coach Herring, Coach Mikell, and the entire freshman football team for an incredible season. They will make many contributions to the varsity football program in the future.

The microbe football team had one of the most successful seasons in history this year. The Little Red had, under the guidance of Coach Thoni, a 5-1 record with their only loss coming to a very strong Brentwood team.

The offense was led by quarterback Jody Cummings and tailback Andy Russ, who led the team in the scoring with nine touchdowns. The defense led by Kirke Martin was the most surprising aspect of the team. Martin proved to be a catalyst in stopping the opponent.

Many team leaders graduate into the Freshman class next year to make a strong Freshman team.

When the MBA cross country team met on August 1 to begin training for the 1988 season, the runners knew that their struggle to defend their seventh straight regional title would be an uphill battle. Three of last year's top seven runners were gone, including Steve Zibas, who finished fourth in the state in 1987.

Lanson Hyde, James Gooch, and Jason Burroughs were left to lead sophomores Keith Ikard, Casey Jones and George Rietz, and freshman Justin Crosslin in the new top seven's quest for another regional victory. Other seniors who provided excellent leadership from the B-team were Jay Binkley, Thayer Smith, Lee Clark, and David Strayhorn.

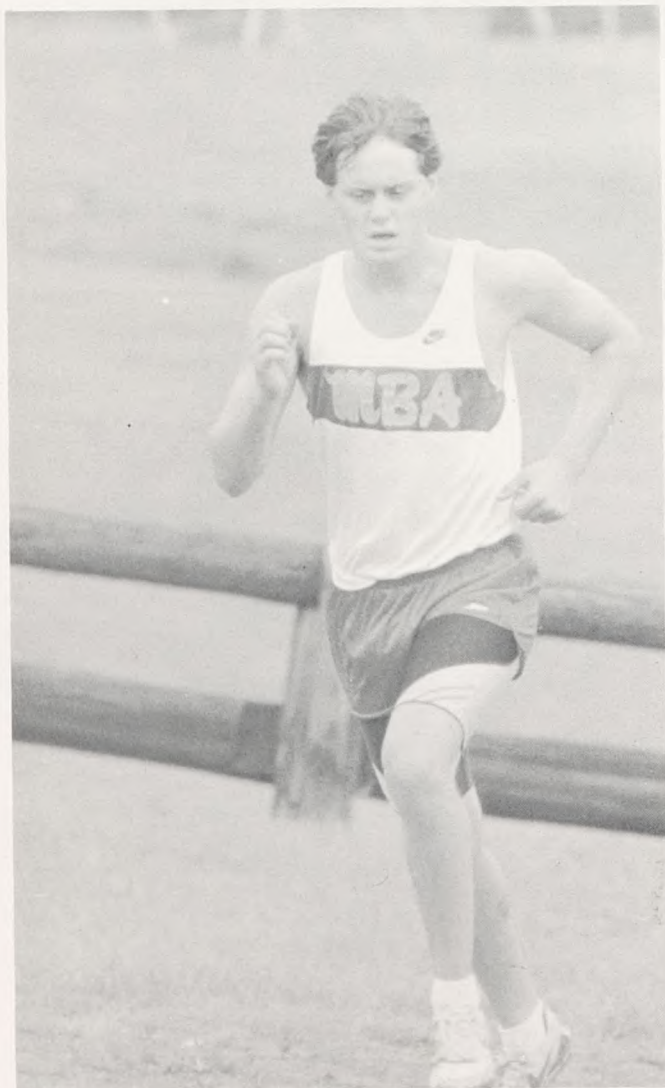

The season opened with the traditionally competitive Robert K. Pruitt Invitational, in which the Big Red was beaten by defending state champion Brentwood Academy. The harriers then went back to training with renewed determination as they prepared for the Lexington Catholic Invitational at the Kentucky Horse Park.

The Cruisers faced several tests before the Lexington meet. At Pizza Hut the night before the race, Lee Clark's numerous attempts to be friendly with the local crowd failed miserably. Also, the Kentucky ladies thought the guy with the pink tie (a.k.a. Lanny Hyde) was a dork. The frustration of the team continued into the night as a crabapple fight at the motel turned sour. The team pulled together the next morning, however, and placed second in the prestigious meet to a talented team from Cordia, Kentucky.

The Big Red runners returned to Nashville to prepare for the home stretch of the season. On October 20, a theme day, the Big Red would face an impressive Hillsboro team, among others, in the Metro Classic. According to Captain Gooch's expert computations, the Burros in an earlier meet performed better than Brentwood Academy had at the state meet the year before. Despite the fact that each member of our top seven ran their personal best time, Hillsboro prevailed as Metro Champs. Earning individual trophies for the Big Red were Keith Ikard (5th), who ran the home stretch with an excruciating cramp; Casey Jones (7th); Lanson Hyde (10th); Jason Burroughs (19th); James Gooch (24th); and George Rietz (29th).

The Region V Championship meet was scheduled for October 27 which was not a theme day, and the Big Red had high hopes that a full night's sleep and continued improvement would lead to their winning of an eighth straight title. Minutes before the race, Hillsboro's top runner was surprised to learn that TSSAA rules require an athlete to attend school the day of a contest. Fate was with the Big Red runners as they defeated Hillsboro and all other comers and brought another regional cross-country championship to the hill. Winning individual award were Keith Ikard, Lanson Hyde (5th), Casey Jones (6th), Jason Burroughs (13th), and Justin Crosslin (27th). James Gooch dropped out of the race with a twisted ankle.

Fate is fickle, though, as the Big Red's performance in the state meet proved. The tough competition, the merciless wind, and the mud and water standing on the course were too much for the runners to handle as they finished tenth in the state. Running in the season finale were Lanson Hyde, James Gooch, Jason Burroughs, George Rietz, Justin Crosslin, Casey Jones, (who finished fifty-first despite being severely spiked on the calf early in the race), and Keith Ikard who ran extremely well and finished eleventh.

Next year will certainly be a successful one for the MBA cross-country team. Even though the top seven will again lose three runners, Keith Ikard, Casey Jones, George Rietz, and Justin Crosslin, along with rising stars Don James, Brandon Barrett, Rob Lance, Matt Zibas, and Logan Fortner should form another impressive MBA cross-country team.

Microbe Cross Country

Although this year's Microbe cross country team was unable to compile a winning record, the runners improved greatly, leaving great promise for future microbe and varsity teams. In the middle of the season, the team picked up some outstanding runners in Jason Barton, Howard Rietz, Kevin Stoll and Lewis Jones. Other excellent runners were Taylor Harris, Flagg Youngblood, LeMoyne Harwell, Michael Burke, Jason Willis, Edward Jack, and Travis Ehrie.

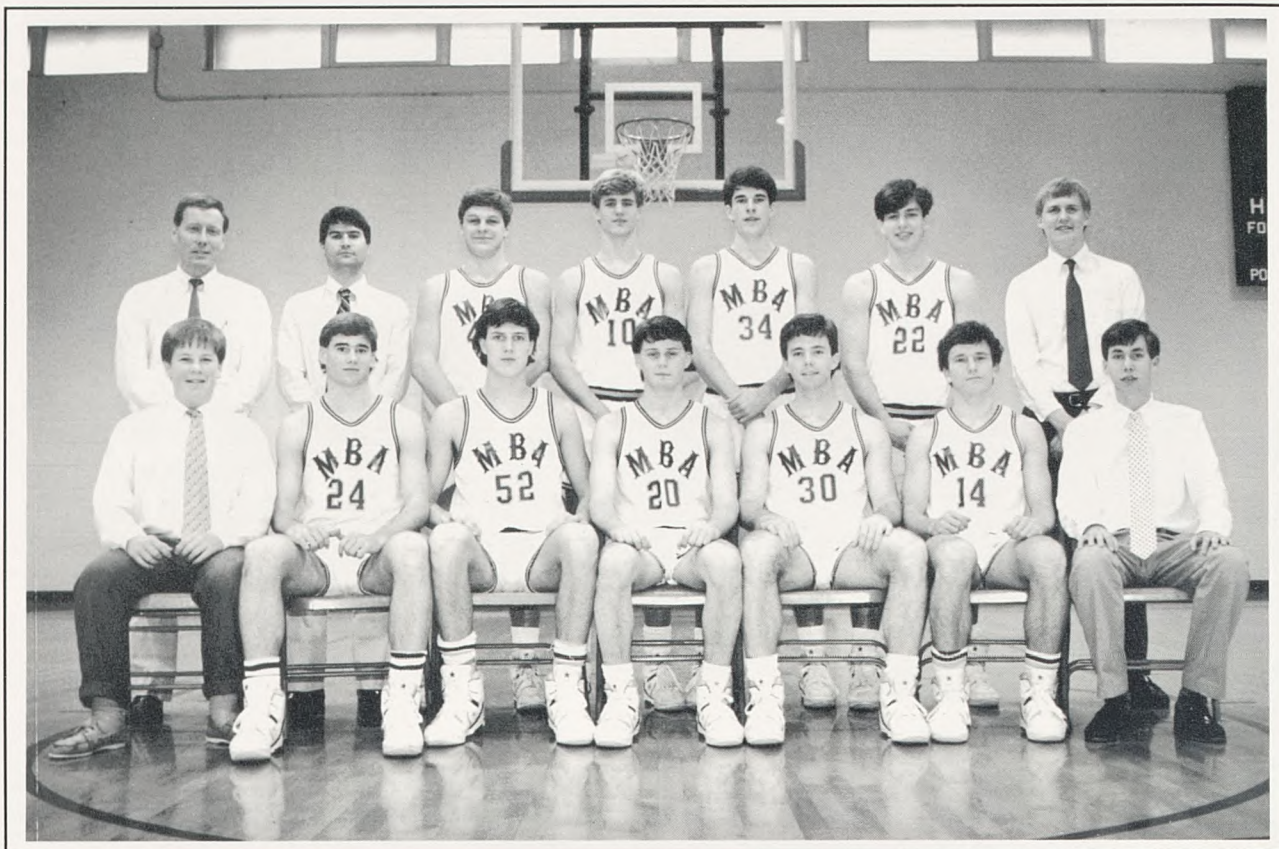

The team's first meet was at MBA on September 8. Taylor Harris came in fourth with a time of 9:43, but Christ Presbyterian was able to pull out the victory. In the next meet at Brentwood Academy, Taylor Harris came in sixth with a time of 10:13, Flagg Youngblood came in sixteenth, LeMoyne Harwell came in twenty-first and Edward Jack came in twenty-second. The third meet was at MBA on September 22. Jason Barton (who had just joined the team) came in eleventh; but his time was not recorded (sorry about that Jason). Once again, the team fell short of a victory. During the next week, Taylor Harris was struck by an injury when he pulled a muscle in his leg. This injury was indeed costly, for Harris was forced to sit out for week; then injury fell upon Travis Ehrie who also would miss the rest of the season. MBA still managed to make a fairly good standing in the fourth meet at Brentwood Middle School. Jason Barton came in seventh, Howard Rietz came in nineteenth, and Kevin Stoll came in thirty-fourth. Brentwood Middle, however, won the meet.

In the final regular season meet, Jason Barton came in ninth and Taylor Harris came in twenty-first, and Howard Rietz came in thirty-second. These finishes were fine results of hard work on the part of the entire team.

The two coaches, Mr. Novak and Mrs. Christeson, are quite praiseworthy as well. Throughout the season, they stuck with the team, always offering helpful hints or just encouragement. They instructed the team in sportsmanship as well as running technique. Their dedication was greatly appreciated. It is obvious that although the win-loss record may not show success, this year's microbe cross-country team was truly a winning one!

Varsity Basketball

At the commencement of the 1988-89 basketball season, the varsity basketball team faced one big question: How were they going to do after losing eight seniors? The Big Red had a very young team, including three seniors (James Gooch, Bo Healy, and Mike Seshul) three juniors (Matt Fisher, Alden Smith, and Richard Arendale) and four sophomores (Walter Southwood, Taylor Mayes, Tate McDaniel, and Alex Waddey).

Coach Thoni's first game in his varsity career was against potential state champion Whites Creek. They lost big, 57-34, because much of the team had just begun practice after coming out late due to football season.

After losing to the Creek, B.G.A., Maplewood, and Overton, the Big Red won their first game against McGavock. Walter Southwood chipped in 19 points. Alex Waddey and James Gooch added 11 and 10 respectively. Bo Healy also had 10 rebounds in the game. The team played Hillsboro next and suffered a close defeat of 51-47. Although the team lost, the first Hillsboro game may have been the game which the Big Red put the most heart into all season.

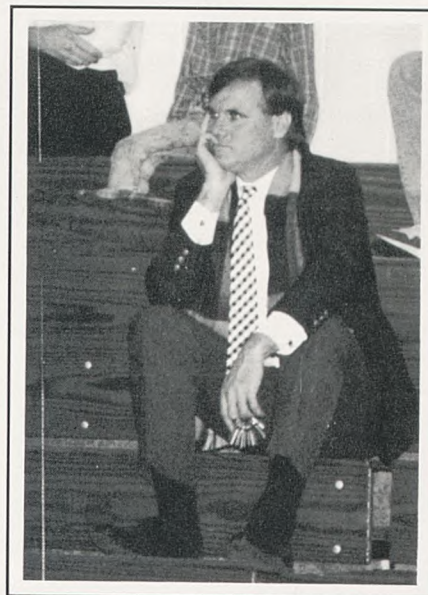

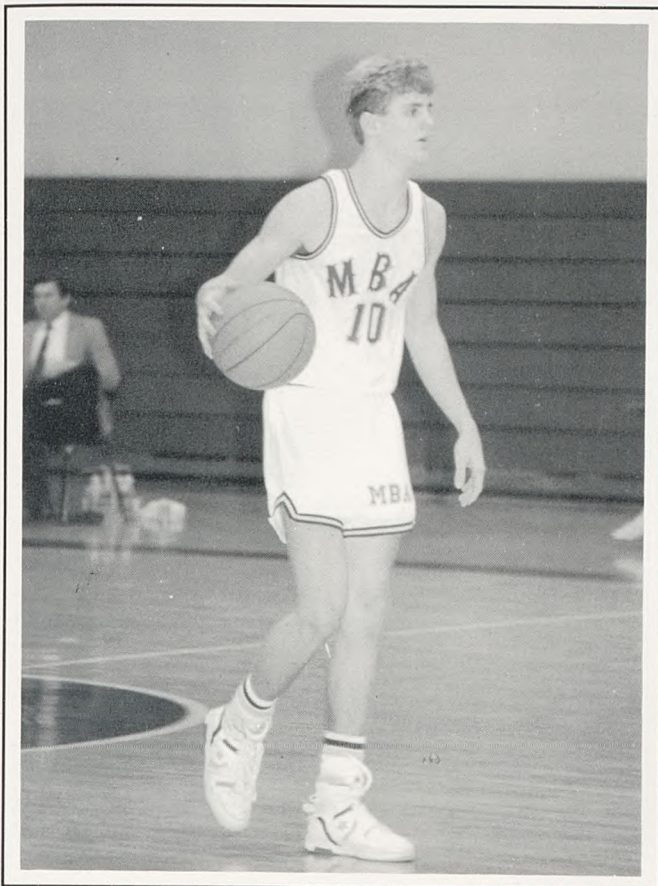

After losing to the Burros and a strong Cookeville team, M.B.A. defeated Pearl-Cohn. The Big Red then went on to play in the Brentwood High Bruin Invitational. They beat the host Bruin team 59-58 behind James Gooch's 20 points and Alex Waddey's steal and lay up to win with five seconds left. In the finals, the Big Red then met the team that would prove to be its nemesis, the Hillsboro Burros. They played a hard fought game and were up by four points in the fourth quarter but were defeated 73-63 despite Bo Healy's 18 points. Healy and Gooch were named to the all-tournament team.

M.B.A. went on to beat Hillwood, to lose to Stratford 49-48, and to lose to Hunters Lane 62-53. Then came the Irish of Father Ryan. Throughout the game, there were many lead changes, and with seconds remaining, it was tied. James Gooch put up a three-pointer, and Bo Healy tapped the ball in with less than half a tick of the clock to give M.B.A. a 70-68 win.

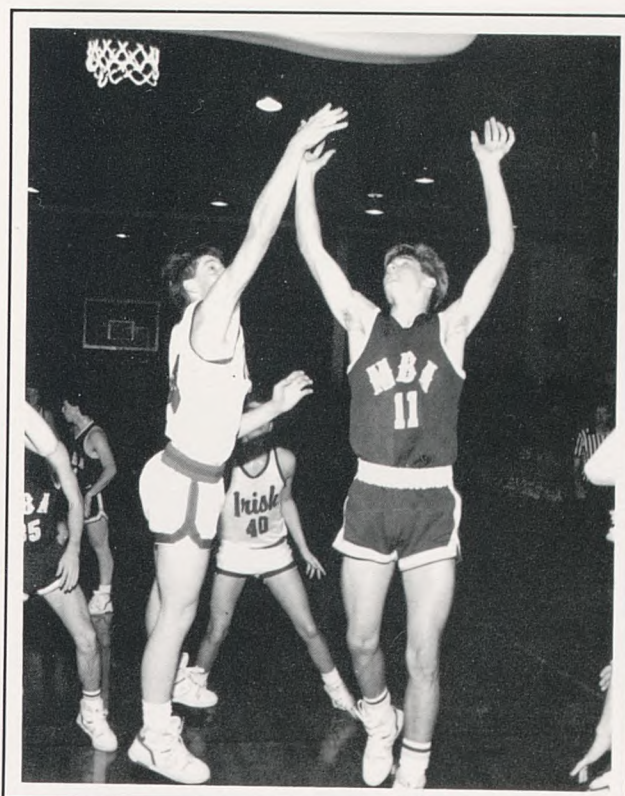

Overall, the Big Red compiled a disappointing 7-15 record, but this stat was meaningless in the district tournament. The Varsity went on to beat Hillwood and Overton, victories which boosted the Big Red to a spot in the regional tournament. There they lost a close game to Maplewood 47-45.

Although the varsity team had a disappointing season, the Big Red put all they had into every second of the game. With four sophomores and three juniors returning, the district will have to watch out for the Big Red next year.

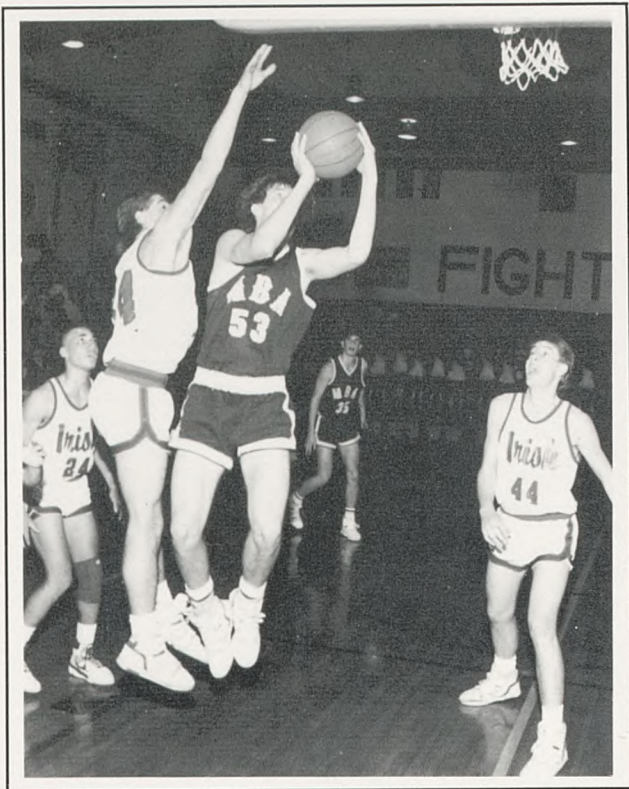

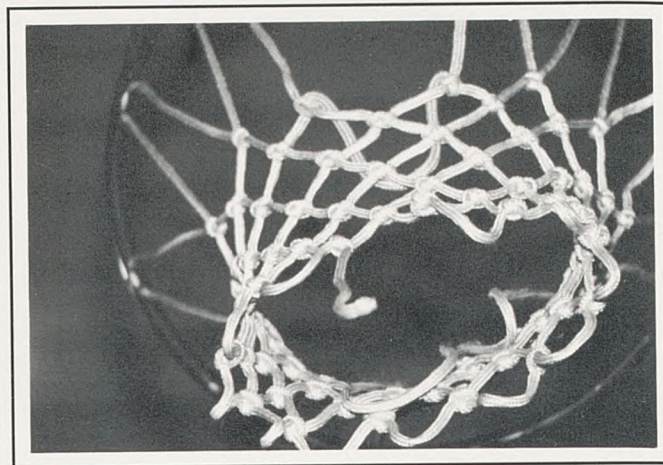

Dr. Paschall sits in awe of the amazing slam-dunk ability of the M.B.A. Varsity squad.

The 1988-1989 J.V. basketball team, under the direction of Coach Ken Downey, enjoyed one of its finest seasons in recent history. While compiling a record of 9-8, the Big Red gained much valuable experience in hopes of carrying it over for the varsity seasons to come.

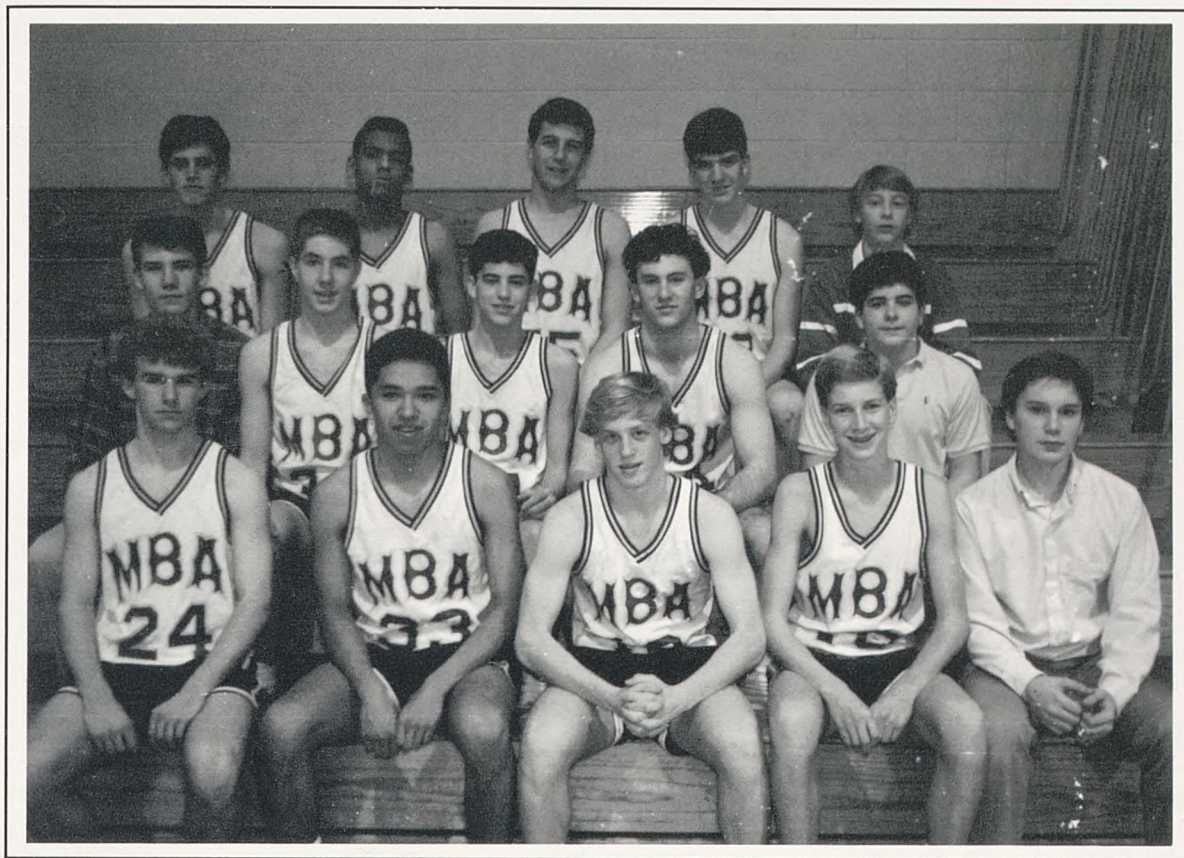

The team traveled to Franklin to play B.G.A. in its opening game of the season. After a slow start, the Big Red came on strong, winning handily 67-49. Taylor Mayes and Charlie Williams led the team with 16 and 19 points respectively. The J.V. then turned away Maplewood, 51-41. Taylor Mayes again led the way with 17 points. The Big Red then suffered two disappointing losses to Overton and McGavock to even its record to 2-2. However, among the friendly confines of Brownlee O. Curry gymnasium, the J.V. got back on the winning path with a 71-51 stomping of the Hillsboro Burros. With school out and Christmas break having started, the Big Red was mauled by a tough Pearl-Cohn team 76-52. Returning from the break, the J.V. team traveled to Madison High School to play Stratford, coming away with a surprising 63-55 victory. Charlie Williams led the victory with six first-half 3 pointers, while Matt Fisher and Tate McDaniel each contributed 10 points. The Big Red then defeated Hunters Lane with a narrow 54-53 win. Drew Healy led the charge with 18 points while Charlie "Choo-Choo" Williams had 16. The Big Red then took on The Evil Empire, Father Ryan. The Big Red jumped out to an early lead and held on for a 65-52 victory. Tate McDaniel led the way with 25 points and Matt Fisher had 16. Suffering from an emotional high, the Big Red then went on to lose its next four games to Overton, Hillsboro, Antioch, and Pearl-Cohn. Now below the .500 mark for the first time, the Big Red climbed back even with perhaps the greatest finish in J.V. basketball history. With time running out against University Heights of Kentucky and the Big Red down by two, Richard Arendale took matters into his own hands. He received the in-bound pass, drove down the length of the court, launched a 22.3 footer at the buzzer of the first overtime, and kissed it off the glass for a 62-61 victory. The Big Red next took on Clarksville in the annual Hendersonville B-Team Tournament. The J.V. suffered a loss on a last second lay-up 56-55 to the Wildcats although out-playing them for most of the game. The J.V. then finished on a strong note with victories against Ryan and B.G.A. to close out its season at 9-8.

The other members of the team include Chris Vlahos, Richard Cummins, Adin Lara, Brian Norment, Jeff Goidel, and Jason Richardson. These and the other members of the J.V. squad will certainly play a role in continuing the winning tradition of Big Red basketball.

The 1988-89 Freshman basketball team, under the superb leadership of the master, Coach Bennett, found few foes capable of stopping their high-powered offense in a season marked by the winning attitude of the players.

Joining several returning starters from last year's strong Microbe team were newcomers John Schlansker, team spiritual leader Shad Weaver, and Hunter Connelly, who along with others, played multiple positions to cope with injuries to Schlansker and David Fitzgerald. Glenn "Tiger" Harris, the team's leading scorer, was indispensable at guard and forward. Sharing the other guard spot were Fitzgerald and Connelly, while Schlansker and Weaver were key forces at forward. Rounding out the starting team was Joe Underwood at center. Other key players were Ray Brooks, Tad Wood, and R.A. Dickey.

The team compiled a 12-5 record in rolling over other District contenders. Despite losing their season opener to a tough Whites Creek team, they came back to begin an awesome six-game winning streak. The Frosh then fell upon hard times, losing three of their last five games to Pearl-Cohn, Overton, and the Cobras, again, as they prepared to enter the District tournament.

The Big Red, after conquering Hillsboro, avenged their loss to the Firebirds from Pearl-Cohn in an important semifinal game. The squad then entered the Championship game with high hopes of upsetting Whites Creek. The game was hard-fought, as the bench provided strong support in hitting many long range shots, but in the end the Frosh fell valiantly, 56-41.

With so many talented players, this year's team will most certainly play an important role for the Varsity next year.

The 7th and 8th grade basketball team began its season on December 6 when the team crossed the street to participate in the Overbrook Classic. The Microbes opened up the season with a loss to St. Henry's. The team continued its season after the Christmas break with a loss to the team from Grassland. The Microbe team decided to place their slow start behind them by defeating two teams back to back. The Microbes defeated Christ Presbyterian and then avenged an earlier loss by defeating St. Henry's. The Big Red lost to the Brentwood Academy Eagles on the Big Red's home court. The Microbes came off of the loss with a new attitude. The Big Red won its next two games against arch-rival Ensworth and against the Franklin Road Academy Rebels. The Microbes lost their last two of three games with a sole win over the Ensworth Tigers. The team entered the H.V.A.C. tournament with an even record of 5-5. The team played against the Battle Ground Academy Bobcats in the first round, avenging an earlier loss to the Bobcats with a win. The Microbes played Brentwood Academy Eagles in the second round where they lost. The Big Red gained third place in the tournament with a win over Grassland in the consolation game. Under the leadership of Floyd Elliot and ex-MBA basketball great Mike Morrissey, the Microbe basketball team ended its season with a winning record of 7-6.

Hockey

The Montgomery Bell Academy Hockey Team regrouped for another exciting year on the ice, this year's squad being larger and more enthusiastic than ever before. Led by seniors Chris Shea, Willie Johnson, John Nameth, and sophomore Jeff Lundstrum, the experienced team was finally able to beat the rival hockey team from Ryan in the final game of the year.

The season started out, however, with a close game against Ryan in which the Big Red lost 3-1, after having dominated the game during the first two periods. Success followed, though, when M.B.A. routed the Hillwood Ice-Toppers 8-3. Brian Cherrington and Mark Olyk played a large role in leading the Big Red to victory. Indeed, they promise to be valuable assets to the team in the upcoming years. The final two games of the year were played late in the season against the same teams from Ryan and Hillwood.

On an early Saturday morning, Ryan and MBA faced off for the final game, and certainly the most exciting. The game was extremely close, and when the third period came to an end, the score was tied 5-5. Rusty, the famous Centennial referee, remembered that in a situation like this a five-minute sudden-death overtime should take place. As the clock wound down, Jeff Lundstrom and Willie Johnson made a break-away for the Ryan net, and the selfish sophomore, unwilling to relinquish his chance for glory and popularity, refused to pass the puck to Johnson (who's writing this article) and scored the goal himself. The goal did, however, win the game and the Big Red had beaten Ryan for the first time.

The year ended with a final game against Hillwood who, like the bush-leaguers they are, illegally recruited several players from the Ryan team. MBA, undaunted nevertheless, came out on top with an 8-7 victory. This year's hockey team was certainly the most successful yet, and if the squad can handle the loss of John Nameth and Willie Johnson, they promise to have another great year.

Although disheartening and frustrating at times, the 1988-89 wrestling season for MBA was one filled with some excellent achievements. The word for the year was INJURY. The dream team that was expected to start and finish for the Big Red was plagued by problem after problem; one by one, returning starters seemed to drop. Four of the five returning seniors wrestled with major injuries. One injured senior, however, would, with the utmost courage and determination, march his way to the top.

The season opened with a disturbing loss to a strong Brentwood High team. MBA dominated with 125-, 145- and 189-pound weight classes. Senior Greg Downer, a two-time captain who has been district champion, regional runner-up, and 6th in the state in 1987, led the team throughout the year at 125. Senior Billy Frist, who placed 5th in the state in 1987, returned from a year of knee rehabilitation to be co-captain and an ever-dominant force for the Big Red at 145. At 189, junior Dan Brooks, whose career has been marked by injury and success, vanquished future district champ Gary Shearer in a second-round pin. The night was marked by tragedy, however, when senior Chris Cigarran, a region wrestler whose improvement seemed to foretell a district title, dislocated his elbow in his 130-pound bout. Cigarran, a great leader, would not wrestle again until the district tourney. The Big Red went on to see great success from all the starters such as C.B. Harwell at 103, Dudley Hammon at 112, Lance Carney at 119, John Bass (returning district finalist) at 130, Martin Roberts at 140, George Clements at 150, Billy Crawford and Chris Horstman at 160. David Trainer dominated the 171-pound class, especially at the Cleveland Duals where he pinned every opponent he faced and then the team in a celebration at Rax.

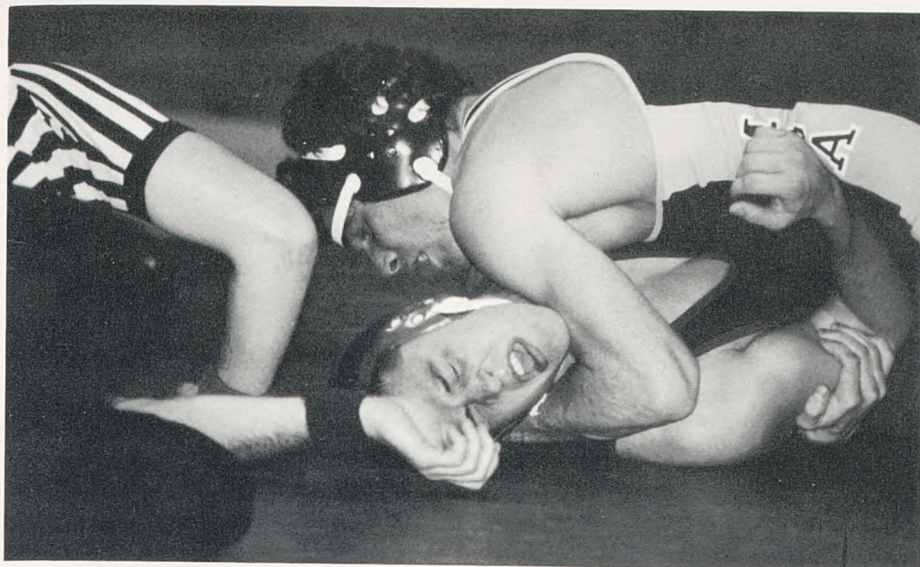

At the Overton tourney, the MBA squad gave one of its best tournament performances in years. The unknown Big Red team stormed into third place behind future state champs Franklin and state fifth-placers Whites Creek. In this tournament were many highlights: Billy Crawford placed 4th (but broke his hand in an overtime match against future state champ Tim Harris of Franklin); C.B. Harwell placed 4th; Greg Downer placed 3rd; and Billy Frist, David Trainer, and Dan Brooks each won championships. Frist defeated future stereo dealer Eric Cameron of Ryan.

Following a short break, the MBA wrestlers reentered the hot, steamy arena to continue winning ways in holiday matches against Whites Creek, Hendersonville, and Beech. In these matches, Frist continued his undefeated streak, Trainer met his first defeat, Dan Brooks began his long chain of abstinence in order to let his shoulder heal, and an exhausted Matt Bumstead ended a day of dominance with a first-period lead over the state's second best 140-pounder, Mickey Hambrick of Whites Creek. The following week, the Big Red traveled to Brentwood Academy, where many rivals would meet. Greg Downer was the only MBA wrestler in all these rivalries to come out on top. Although Downer produced a stunning decision over the large Scott Johnson, all weights 140 and above would lose, including Billy Frist's defeat at the hands of 88's 3rd in the state, Jody Jones. This loss would become an all-too-familiar sight for Frist.

Having then rolled over Pearl-Cohn 63-0, MBA entered the tough Ryan tourney with little success. John Bass and David Trainer wrestled well, and Billy Frist met his second defeat, again to Jody Jones, in the finals. Following a senior-led rout of N.C.S., MBA took on rival Father Ryan at home. Although the Big Red lost by five points, the team had forfeited twelve points because of a lack of a heavyweight or a 189-pounder. Two important events took place this evening. The fierce MBA crowd welcomed Chet Frist, the fifth senior who had been out with a shoulder injury, back to the starting lineup. Frist, an outstanding grappler, gave the crowd its money's worth by taking defending state champion Tony Carletello to his back in the early rounds. Frist lost by a mere six points. Fate would have it, though, that for one senior to return to the lineup, another would have to leave. When Matt Bumstead stepped onto the mat that evening, he would unknowingly wrestle the best match in his seven-year career; a shoulder injury that had hurt him since early December would force his season to come to an early and disappointing end.

After matches against Overton, Baylor, and Christian Brothers, in which Downer, Bass, Frist, and Trainer would once again lead the team with exciting matches, it was time for the District tourney. The Big Red entered the tourney with Greg Downer seeded fourth and Billy Frist third. In addition, the varsity welcomed freshman Brett Sanders to the big leagues, and senior Chris Cigarran, who had worked all season to come back, returned to the line-up to fill Bumstead's vacant 140-spot. The first night was filled with many disappointments; hardworking senior leaders Cigarran and Chet Frist (with yet another ankle injury) were eliminated in heartbreaking first-round matches; John Bass and George Clements saw their seasons come to shocking ends as well; and Billy Frist's quest for a district title was stifled when he lost to Eric Nesbitt of Brentwood High in the semi-finals. There are success however, as unseeded Brett Sanders and Dudley Hammon and fourth-seeded Greg Downer stormed their way to the finals. Lance Carney also turned in several excellent performances at 119. On Saturday, the Big Red saw David Trainer and Lance Carney place fourth and Billy Frist and Dan Brooks place third. Sanders and Hammon (who broke his hand in the title match) came away with second place, while senior Downer came away with his second District Championship, defeating Mark Stacey in the finals at 125.

Leek laughs at his puny opponent.

The next week brought on the Region tourney in which five of the Big Red's six advanced to the state: Lance Carney could not work his way past a very difficult draw. Dan Brooks (whose shoulder was still injured) took sixth, David Trainer fifth, and Brett Sanders fourth (after mauling the eventual state runner-up). Greg Downer, the first seed at 125, dismembered all his foes en route to the finals. In the finals, however, he would lose 5-4 to rival Rob Baker of Lipscomb in the tourney's "Best Match". Billy Frist defeated Cameron of Ryan and Nesbitt of Brentwood High to reach the finals in which he lost to Jody Jones of B.A. for the third time. For Frist, Jones' time would come.

The next week, the five wrestlers traveled to Chattanooga for the state tourney. Four of the five were unable to place. Billy Frist, however, went to work. Frist met Nesbitt of Brentwood High once more in the semis, demolished him, and readied himself for his last confrontation with Jody Jones.

Frist was 0-3 against Jones, but the past was irrelevant. The question, "Who was best in the end?" was to be resolved. Frist stepped out onto the mat the underdog, but when the buzzer sounded the crowd erupted, and M.B.A. had a State Champion in Billy Frist. (See page 127).

Throughout all the injury and disappointment, the team had a great season, capped off by the performances of Frist and Downer. Next year's team will surely be excellent with the rising wrestlers, and with Coaches Killian and Gaither working their magic.

The 1988-89 Freshman Wrestling Team had a successful season under the guidance of Coach Anderson Gaither. Captains Eric Crawford and Bo Bartholomew led the Big Red throughout the year. Competing in three tournaments, the team finished the season with a record of 7-2-1. In the McGavock Tournament, the Frosh placed a strong second by defeating Hillwood. David Frazier and Bo Bartholomew won their divisions, with Chris Johnston and Brett Sanders placing second and with Eric Crawford and Carter Baker finishing third. Mark Szydlo and Dominic Calvani placed fourth in the highly competitive Overton Tournament, the Big Red finished a strong second by beating Hillwood. Finally, in the Region Tournament, the team finished third overall, with Bo and Brett finishing first, Eric finishing third, and Morgan Parker and David Frazier placing fourth.

Microbe Wrestling

Geoff Leek bears down on his opponent.

Even though the 1988-89 Microbe wrestling team ended the season with a 2-6 dual meet record and a fifth place finish in the H.V.A.C. tournament, the team improved greatly over the course of the season. The "Little Red" was led by eighth graders John Arendale, Jason Barton, Shannon Durrett, Mike Gavigan, Geoffrey Leek, and Clinton Russell. The promising seventh graders were LeMoyne Harwell, Tom Sullivan, and Chad White. In the H.V.A.C. tournament, Clinton Russell, Tom Sullivan, and Jason Barton placed fourth. LeMoyne Harwell placed second. Also, Mike Gavigan was given the award for the best match of the tournament. The future looks bright for the Microbe wrestlers.

Swim Team

Bottom row: Warren Downs, Jay Joiner, Scott Yates, Brent Cummings

This year, the swim team finished its third successful season and produced one of its strongest teams ever.

Starting back in November, the team began daily practices under the supervision of Nashville Aquatic Club coach John Racata and soon defeated both Father Ryan and Franklin High School in a three-way meet in early December.

That same week, the swimmers participated in the first annual "University School Tiger Invitational Relay Meet" and finished a disappointing fourth due to peculiar scoring arrangements that caused the Big Red to be scored with the weaker St. Cecilia team. Powerhouses Brent Cummings and Bo Sundius were also unable to compete, and their absence was hard felt.

In January, the team competed against the forces of Brentwood High, University School and Gallatin High School in the freezing waters of TSU's soon-to-be-declared-unsanitary pool. Again, the Big Red were to disappointed and walked away in fourth.

The final dual meet of the season was held at La Vergne High School, and the team was able to rebound and beat the La Vergne team by winning practically every event in the meet.

The Nashville Conference meet was held two weeks later, and M.B.A. swimmers completed the regular season with a second place finish behind Brentwood and finishing ahead of Oakland High School, Father Ryan, University School, Franklin, La Vergne, Gallatin, and Hillsboro. Good performances were turned in by the two co-captains, Jay Joyner and Warren Downs, as well as by Brent Cummings, Bo Sundius, Andrew Publow, and Pieter Foster.

Finally, eight swimmers went to Knoxville to compete in the State Meet held in the UT Natorium. There the 200 meter Medley Relay comprised of Pieter Foster, Brent Cummings, Warren Downs, and Bo Sundius placed a solid tenth. Brent also placed fourth in the 100 meter breaststroke and fifth in the 200 meter individual medley. Other good performances were made by Andrew Publow, Jay Joyner, Matt Foster, and Scott Yates.

The swim team looks forward to its season next year and would like to thank Mrs. Elly Foster and Mr. Bennett for their guidance and organization this year.

Rifle Team

The 1988-89 season's M.B.A. Rifle Team looked forward to a very promising year. Under the masterful leadership of Coach Stevens, the team was organized in early December and met every Wednesday night at the Vanderbilt range whether rain, shine, or theme. Senior members included Jim Abernathy, Kelsey Fitzpatrick, David Lockyear, and Thayer Smith. New strength and leadership was also discovered in new 8th and 9th grade members.

The first tournament was held in the middle of January, and the varsity team composed of Seniors Jim Abernathy, David Lockyear, and Thayer Smith and of Junior member Eric Falk scored an exciting second place finish to David Lipscomb, M.B.A.'s biggest rival. However, M.B.A. took revenge in the second tournament of 1989 by handily defeating Lipscomb and a promising Harpeth Hall team through the excellent shooting of varsity team members Jim, Thayer, David, and Sophomore Richard Fitzgerald. The team's glory in this promising year was curtailed, however, when the Vanderbilt range was closed without the completion of the remaining season. To much dismay, the Seniors had shot their last round at M.B.A. Despite the fact that much of the team is leaving this year, the M.B.A. rifle team looks promising with the opening of the range next year.

Varsity Tennis

As expected, the 1989 tennis team had another successful season. The Big Red top seven consisted of seniors Bill Cherry, Andy Underwood, and Frank Drowota; sophomore David Mason; and freshman Morgan Parker. The experience of the team, which returned four starters, showed in its early season road trip to Memphis.

In Memphis, the Big Red took on Germantown and M.U.S. The Big Red, led by Cherry's win over the defending state champion, defeated Germantown 8-1. The next day, the M.U.S. Owls were dealt a 6-3 defeat. These surprising victories showed that M.B.A. was a team to be reckoned with.

After returning to Nashville, the Big Red impressively defeated Hillwood, USN, Hendersonville, and Brentwood. The team then headed north for Louisville rather than making its annual journey to the Rotary in Chattanooga. The team extended its winning streak to 8 matches by defeating Trinity; however, the Big Red were beaten 6-3 by St. Xavier, the defending state champions in Kentucky. The Big Red then disposed of Hillsboro, Brentwood Academy, and Lone Oak before entering the Carter Invitational. The team finished 5th in the tournament with Bill Cherry winning the #1 singles crown, and David Mason winning the #5 singles consolations.

The team then headed into the District tournament at M.B.A. Representing the Big Red were Bill Cherry and Underwood in singles and the teams of Thomas/Belote and Drowota/Parker in the doubles competition. Both finals pitted M.B.A. vs. M.B.A. In the finals, Bill Cherry won his 4th District title by defeating Andy Underwood. In doubles, the team of Drowota/Parker defeated Thomas/Belote.

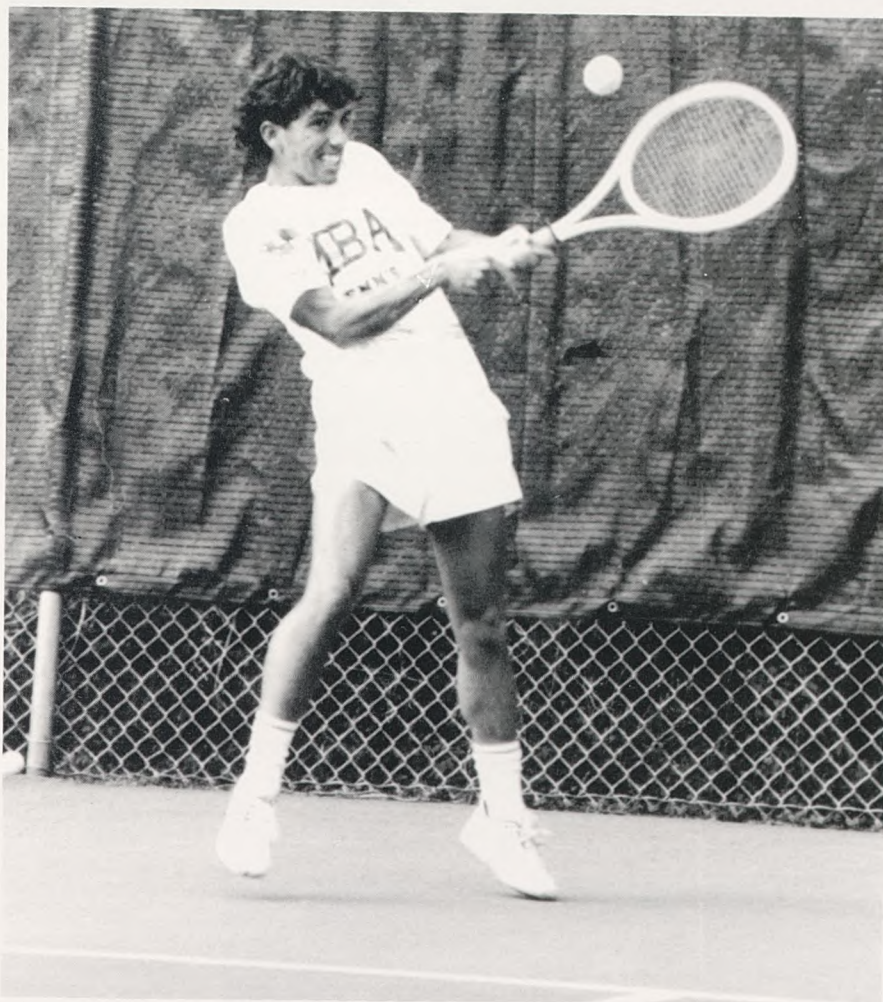

Frank Drowota prepares for the return volley.

Leighton Thomas warms up for a match.

The Region tournament once again pitted M.B.A. vs. M.B.A. in the finals, and once again Bill Cherry won; however, in the doubles, Thomas/Belote avenged their earlier loss in the Districts. The Big Red then won the region team tournament by blanking Father Ryan in the semi-finals and Goodpasture in the finals. The team then traveled to Cookeville for the team sub-state and again the Big Red out-shined their opponents with a 7-0 victory. The team then faced Baylor in the semi-finals of the state team competition where they were defeated 4-1. Ironically, the Baylor team had no player in its top 5 that was from the state of Tennessee. In the individual state tournament, Bill Cherry was the only player to make it into the second day of competition. That day, backed by a Pro-M.B.A. crowd, Cherry defeated Chuck Coleman of Baylor 6-1, 2-6, 7-6. This marked Cherry's third state championship and also ended what was a very successful season for the Big Red.

Next year's team will lose three seniors and will have to look to several younger players to fill in the void. Hopefully the streaks of District and Regional titles will not be broken as the team once again asserts its dominance.

Microbe Tennis

The success of the M.B.A. tennis program can be seen at all levels. The Microbe Tennis team complements the success of the varsity program with its third undefeated season in a row.

Leading the team were Andrew Ross, who was undefeated in singles, Matt Simpson, and Kevin Stoll. Also contributing to the Little Red's excellent record were Robert West, Richard Douglass, Jonathan Hulbert, Charles Warner, Charlie Thombs, and Ben Curtis.

The M.B.A. Microbes swept through their regular season schedule defeating Harding Academy, Ensworth, F.R.A., B.G.A., Brentwood Middle School, Brentwood Academy, Christ Presbyterian, and Mt. Juliet Christian Academy for an impressive 9-0 record.

Although the Little Red conquered arch-rival Ensworth 3-2 during the regular season, they could do no better than tie them for first place in the HVAC Tournament. No doubt these Microbe players will provide the varsity team with great talent in the upcoming year.

Varsity Track

This year's varsity track team had a surprisingly strong dual meet season, defeating Ryan, Hillsboro, and Pearl-Cohn among many others. When the big-meet season rolled around, the Big Red was fully prepared and well-coached.

The first opponent of the Big Red was the Hillwood "Hilltoppers." Suffering a two-point loss to the neighborhood rivalry, MBA stood strong in the field events with a good performance by the long distance runners. The next meet was a quad against Pearl-Cohn, Brentwood, and Ryan. With our own team pulling out the first place victory, and our friends from Elliston Place finishing an extremely distant last, the MBA team and fans were truly satisfied with their performances. There was an MBA member in one of the top three places in every event. It seemed as if there were no competition to hold down the track team since the closest opposing team was a distant thirty-one points behind. The next time, MBA was not quite so successful. In a dual meet against Overton, MBA suffered a tough loss. Even though the Big Red showed prowess in the field events, the experienced Overton track squad was hard to beat. In MBA's final dual meet, the team rallied to overcome many obstacles and defeat Hillsboro by a score of 79 to 57.

Then Mr. Pruitt, Lord of all track, deemed it big-meet season, and the Big Red track team was on its way to the end of the year. The varsity track team competed in four big-meets: the Mid-South Classic, our own Nashville Relays, the Optimist Relays, and the Banner Relays. After these endeavours, the team competed in the Region meet. A dedicated and determined Keith Ikard showed well enough to advance to the State Tournament.

On a rainy day, the Big Red headed to Chattanooga to compete in the Mid-South Classic. Placed against some incredibly strong powerhouses and because of the high jump, long jump, and pole vault (some of our strongest events) not being held on account of the rain, the Big Red had some trouble finishing in a high position. An extremely good performance by Alden Smith in the 200m and 400m events kept the hopes up for the rest of the team. The MBA team then found the weak spots and had them corrected by the Nashville Relays.

The next competition on MBA's schedule was its own Nashville Relays. The team pulled together and attained a first place team finish over 11 total teams. Avenging the loss to Hillwood and defeating a tough Hunters Lane team were key points about the match. The field events were swept by the Big Red teams, which came in either first or second place in every event. A second place finish was achieved in the 4 x 1600m and the 4 x 800m teams. This was probably the best performance as a team that the Big Red had all year.

In the Optimist Relays, the MBA team put on an amazing performance, which won the fourth place trophy for the team. Being defeated by the future state champion Hunters Lane and the second place state finisher, Hillwood, the Big Red had all the reason in the world to be proud of their accomplishments. Led by a strong Pole vault event and a first place performance by Keith Ikard in the 3200m, the MBA team was known as one of the top teams in the region.

meet were the third place finish in the 400m run by Alden Smith and the second place, state qualifying 3200m run by Keith Ikard.

Keith Ikard ventured onto his home track on the day of the State meet. After an amazing run, he managed to pull out a seventh place finish.

The 1989 MBA track team will not soon be forgotten, and the hopes for an even better 1990 season will be in the front of the returning tracksters' mind.

Casey Jones fights off the competition.

The Banner Relays were next on the schedule for MBA. This gargantuan meet of 27 teams proved to be tough when the Big Red had to work hard for the fifth place finish it achieved. The team was led by a strong group of younger classmen. Robert Echols, Casey Jones, Alden Smith, and the ever-present Keith Ikard all pulled out either a second or third place finish in their events. Now the team had to prepare for the upcoming Regional meet at McGavock.

The fifth place finish in the TSSAA Region III track meet was a surprisingly strong finish for the Big Red tracksters. The highlights of the

This year's freshman track team performed well throughout the whole season. The team was strong in field events as well as running events. Their overall record was 7-1, and they earned first place in the Doug Hall Memorial Relays and the Metro Junior High Championship.

In the shot put and discus, Tad Wood, Bo Bartholomew, and Joe Underwood were standouts. In the city meet, Bartholomew and Underwood placed 3rd and 6th in the discus, respectively. In the shot put, Bartholomew and Wood placed 2nd and 4th, respectively. Eric Crawford was a superb long-jumper, placing 3rd in the city meet with a jump of 19'7". In the pole vault, Carter Baker, John Inman, and Shad Weaver carried on a M.B.A. tradition by sweeping the pole vault in the city meet. Shad Weaver was a big contributor in the running events also.

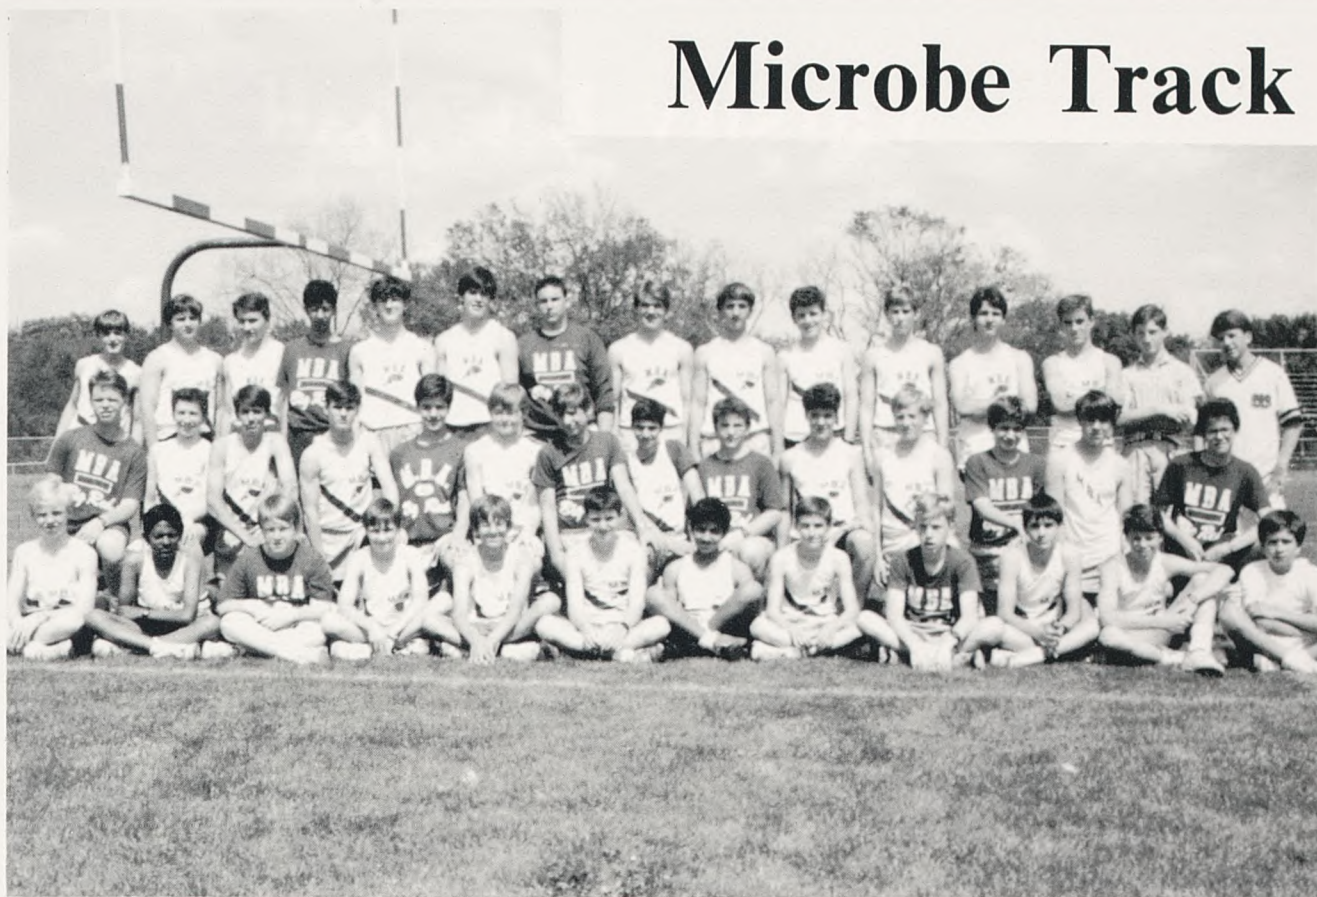

Weaver was city champion in the 110 meter low hurdles and second in the 400. The 4 X 100 and 4 X 200 relay teams, composed of Weaver, Jackson Wray, Underwood, and Crawford, set M.B.A. freshman records in the Doug Hall Relays. They got 47.4 in the 4 X 100 and 1:39.4 in the 4 X 200. The 4 X 800 relay team, made up of Ray Brooks, Chris Bynum, John Wesley, and John Inman captured a gold medal in the city meet. Ray Brooks ran the 800 in most meets and his best time was 2:14.5. Justin Crosslin was the leading member. He got a gold medal and a sub-five minute mile in the city meet. Roy Alley was a close second with a time of 5:01.

Two of the year's members went on to compete on a varsity level. Bo Bartholomew threw the discus in the Regional Fields and placed 5th. Shad Weaver was a member of the 400 relay team, which placed 4th in the region.

Microbe Track

Airborne!

Improving as the season progressed, the microbe track team acquired a third place finish in the HVAC relays and an overall record of 12-1. Despite injuries to two of Coach Gaither's sprinters, the team compiled 81 points, placing them behind Brentwood Academy (129) and Grassland (112), but before neighborhood rival, Ensworth (45). In the field events, MBA produced three place finishers. Andy Ward received second place in shot put as well as Clinton Russell in discus. Displaying his domination in the pole vault, Andy Russ achieved a height of eleven feet, thus setting a new HVAC record. In the running events, the track team also secured place finishers in the hurdles, 400 open, and the 4 X 100 relay. In the 400 open, Julian Bibb and Hal Pickel finished first and second, respectively. The 4 X 400 relay, composed of Claybough, Harris, Pickle, and Bibb, placed second, while the 4 X 200 relay, composed of Trabue, Bibb, Cummings, and Russ, placed third. In the 4 X 100 relay, Gavigan, Trabue, Cummings, and Russ finished fourth. Russ was a first place winner, once again, in the hurdles. In the 100, Hugh Gaston and Andy Russ captured fifth and sixth place, respectively, while Chris Trabue finished fourth place in the 200. The microbe track team showed their great potential for success and promise to improve the microbe and freshman track teams next year.

The 1989 Varsity Baseball Team had many successes this year. The team was composed of two seniors, 4 juniors, 4 sophomores, 5 freshmen, and one 8th grader named Lap Dog Dickey. Lap Dog, alias R.A. Dickey, was sort of the team's playing mascot. The team racked up a 7-8 district record with a 10-13 total record. This initially young team grew throughout the season to become an experienced, well-trained offensive machine.

For its first stage of growth, the M.B.A. "Little Red" traveled to Cocoa, Florida to enlist in the Expos Spring Training Center. None, not even the highly philosophical and omnipotent seniors or coaches Fred Forehand and Ken Downey, knew what to expect in this foreign land. The aging Red played 5 teams from all over the U.S. and with the aid of the omnipotent seniors, Kevin King's arm, Chris Vlahos's warning track power, and Lap Dog's antics, the team left Cocoa with two wins and some needed experience under their belts. Next it was district play time, as the two senior co-captains, Forrest "The Big F" Conner and Doug "Hi! I'm the guy that tripped over 1st base" Miles led the team to the field for its first home district game against Pearl Cohn. There was a smell of victory in the air, and the Big Red had defeated the Pearl Cohn Firebirds. Since the Firebirds were forced to run sprints in the outfield by their coach after their loss, they were thinking, "Golly, M.B.A. is going to be a team to reckon with this year."

And they were right. Pearl Cohn, Whites Creek, and the Hillsboro

Mules lost 7 games out of 7 to the Big Red. The Big Red gave the returning State Champions Overton a scare in the last two games they played each other. In the first round of the district tournament, Junior Kevin King pitched one of his best games against Overton, and although he lost the game, he ended up with 66 k's, 6 wins, and a 2.89 ERA.

The greatest accomplishment of this year's team was its offensive production. The team's batting average was .332 with 79 bases on balls and 223 hits in only 23 games. The Big Red averaged 7.2 runs per game while their opponents averaged 7.0 runs. Standouts this year were Tiger Harris with .410 batting average, David Daniels with a .476 average, and Forrest Conner with a .419 average. Harris led the team with 35 hits, 23 runs scored, 8 doubles, 2 homeruns, and 13 stolen bases in 86 at bats. Senior Doug Miles led the team with 5 triples as well as a homerun. Senior Forrest Conner led the team with 21 RBI's, 17 base on balls, and an on base percentage of about .700. With only 2 seniors leaving, next year's squad should be strong with such players as Stuart Towery behind the plate, Kevin King, David Daniels, and John Teeter pitching on the mound, Glenn Harris in centerfield, Michael Brooks at third, Jay Ferguson in right, and Lap Dog at short. Overall the 1989 Big Red Baseball team played pretty well most of the time and had a fun time the whole season.

Varsity and J.V. shortstop R.A. Dickey lines one into right field.

The J.V. baseball team followed the tradition of supporting the varsity baseball program. The team, coached by Ken Downey, worked hard to prepare the varsity for their grueling competition. Not only did they practice with the varsity, gaining valuable experience, but they also prepared the field for the varsity games.

Four times during the season the J.V. actually took the field for themselves. In their first outing, they met the indomitable juggernaut, known as McGavock's junior varsity team. The Little Red fought valiantly but came up short as both games in the double-header were called off after five innings due to the 10-run margin rule. Later in the season, the J.V. played a tough Beech team, which managed to pull out a victory over the inexperienced Red 6-2. Then the junior varsity tasted the thrill of victory as they outclassed Brentwood High's Bruins 5-4. Gaining much playing experience along the way, the J.V. compiled a record of 1-3 this season. The team should make a large contribution to the varsity baseball program in the future.

Bottom row: Tee McCarley, Jody Cummins, Rob Whitley, Parkes Owen, Howard Kong, Don Ferguson

The M.B.A. "Little Red" Microbe Baseball squad proved their prowess on the playing field in this 1989 season. These action-packed, high-scoring games kept every loyal fan on the edge of his seat throughout the season. The highlights of their regular season play came in an 11-7 victory over a tough Grassland Middle School team, and a double header victory over Franklin Road Academy with scores of 9-5 and 5-4. Behind the strong pitching of Jodi Cummings and John Arendale, the "Little Red" pulled out a tough second place finish in the HVAC tournament. Other key players were Will Berry, who batted a mean clean-up, Trent Battey, and Michael Ligon. These players, along with Coach Thoni, will give the M.B.A. varsity Baseball team the strong backbone it needs for a successful program in years to come.

The M.B.A. soccer team began its season optimistically, not really sure what to expect. The hopes for a good season were strengthened in the pre-season by a well-played match which Brentwood won, and by a tie to a strong B.G.A. squad. The regular season started off on a dreary note as the game against Hendersonville was cancelled because of rain. The team was ready for the first game, though, when they tied a good team from Hillwood with no score. The team did not play so well in the next game, but they managed again, nevertheless, to gain their first victory in a 3-0 defeat of Hume Fogg. The squad of only 16 continued to play well in a Memphis trip during Spring break. This trip was definitely a high point of the season, as we played well in all three games. First, we defeated a weaker team from Carver 5-0. Then we tied a stronger Bartlett team. Then, at the end of the trip, we played the toughest of the three teams. In a very well-played match, the team suffered its first loss of the season to Memphis Kirby, 0-1.

Immediately following the break, however, the team hit a slump. First, the team played poorly against U.S.N. and barely squeaked by with a 3-1 win. We weren't so fortunate at Overton, where we tied the team at one goal apiece. The match against Antioch was cancelled, also as a result of rain. Next, the team played Hillsboro but lost in a heartbreaking 1-2 defeat. Then came the big game against Father Ryan. The varsity hadn't beaten Ryan since Chris Hall was a freshman. M.B.A., however, did lose in another well-played game 0-1. Next, the team faced an aggressive McGavock team. McGavock's aggressiveness hardly made up for their lack of skill, for M.B.A. won a decisive 4-1 victory. In ending the season, the Red traveled to Brentwood High, where they went up 2-0 by halftime. By the second half, however, Brentwood came back under questionable refereeing to end the game at a 2-2 tie.

In the first round of the tournament, M.B.A. faced a young Hunter's Lane team. Although M.B.A. started the game slowly, they still managed to capture an 8-0 win. In the second round, the Red faced the team from McGavock, which was ready to win. We came from behind to tie the Prom-night game, and won in a double-overtime. Finally, in the semi-finals, M.B.A. faced arch-rival Ryan again. In preparation, we watched a video of Ryan's obnoxious and juvenile victory parade around our track two years ago. However, Ryan was apparently prepared, too. They began by taking two goals in eight minutes. They proceeded to up the score until it was 5-0. With a minute left, however, Chris Hall scored a consoling goal to prevent a shut out. This fall, an excellent Ryan team disheartened the Red, but the young talent on the team bodes well for the future.

JV Soccer

This season under the leadership of Mr. Mikell, the JV soccer team showed vast improvement over last season with a record of 4 wins and 4 losses. The JV opened the season with a bang by defeating the Varsity team from FRA. After losing to University School without goalie Drew Healy and several other players, they scored a surprise upset of Murfreesboro-Oakland 3-0. In their next game against McGavock, they lost only by one goal, despite having a McGavock parent and two McGavock Varsity players as referees. Next, the JV fought the Evil Empire of Father Ryan. The clashing colors of Ryan's "polo" uniforms must have bothered the Big Red as they lost one goal to nil. In the next game, MBA hired real referees in a rematch with McGavock. McGavock's "kickball" style didn't work this time as the JV romped to a 2-0 win. After losing a well-fought game to Brentwood, Coach Mikell sought revenge as the Red defeated University School in a rematch 5 goals to nil.

Despite ending the season with a 4-4 record, the team shows signs of greatness in future seasons. The team was well-rounded with a host of seasoned juniors and sophomores such as David Lott, Pat "Harklemania" Harkleroad, and Drew Healy in the goal. Several Freshman additions such as Scott Hande and Michael Weldon show promises as well in becoming excellent Varsity players. With this returning talent and many excellent Microbe players moving up, watch for the Soccer program to just keep getting better and better.

Microbe Soccer

The 1989 Microbe Soccer team, under the tutelage of Coaches John Lanier and David Mikell, entered the season with high hopes of improving upon last year's third place HVAC finish. Returning many starters, the little Red certainly had the opportunity to reach their goal with some hard work and dedication.

Perhaps contributing most to the team's success was the eighth grade leadership of Kirk Martin, at goalie, and Andy Russ, at forward, both of whom were voted to the HVAC all-tournament team. Other key performers were eighth graders, Julian Bibb and Ben Curtis, while Sean Murphy provided excellent defense. Trent Batey became known for his control as well as his outstanding trapping skills. With such strong players, it seemed going into the season that this team could not be denied the reaching of its goal.

The regular season pitted the microbes against such formidable foes as Ensworth, B.G.A., F.R.A., as well as perennial Williamson County powers as Grassland and Brentwood Middle School. In the first game against Grassland, M.B.A. proved itself by prevailing 2-1. In their second meeting, however, Grassland returned undaunted and avenged their earlier loss 2-1. None of the other league teams could challenge the microbes except for the Vikings from Brentwood Middle School. After a hard-fought first game, both teams left the field in a 1-1 tie. In the second game, the team was unfortunately without the services of the injured Kirk Martin, and though they played hard, they fell 4-2. Having compiled an impressive 7-2-1 regular season record, the Little Red entered the HVAC tournament as the league darkhorse.

In the first game of the tournament, the team played an incredibly exciting game against Grassland in a rematch of their earlier season loss. At the end of the game, the two teams were tied, as it went down to a shootout. After two excellent Kirk Martin saves, Andy Russ scored the winning goal to push the team into the finals, where arch rival Brentwood Middle School was the opponent. Despite the hard play of M.B.A., the opposition overcame the Microbes 1-nil, leaving them with a superb second place finish.

Next year, M.B.A. will certainly be supported well on the Microbe level, with many seventh graders returning with the experience of winning. In addition, the Varsity will be getting some strong support from this eighth grade class as shown by Andy Russ, who, in making second-team all-region, contributed greatly in this year's varsity effort. The class of '93 will certainly be one to watch on the soccer field over the next several years.

Varsity Golf

Senior Rhoads Hall, the 1988-89 Golf Team MVP, will be missed next year.

The 1988-89 Varsity golf team was composed of a diverse group of students, ranging in grade level from eighth to twelfth. Joining seniors Rick Barksdale (alias "Bud"), Steve Mathews, and Rhodes Hall, were eighth-grader D.J. Salinas. Marked by experience and youth, this team overcame numerous obstacles to compile yet another successful season for the Big Red.

On August 31, the team had their first match. Whether the University School of Nashville feared the mighty Linksters so much that they did not show or whether they really did not even have a team is still a controversial matter. M.B.A. thus began their season on a somewhat bizarre note. The Big Red, however, got rolling and faced their first real competition on September 8, when they met Father Ryan. Remarkable performances by Patterson and Salinas, who were competing in only their second high school matches, showed that M.B.A. youth had poise. The Linksters posted a 148 with a 37 from Mathews and a 34 from Hall, but they could not overcome the Evil Empire whose players posted a strong 146. The Big Red continued to show promise as they posted a 149 against F.R.A. to avenge last year's only regular season loss.

Having completed all their matches, MBA began to prepare for the District on October 7. On this day, the Linksters finished a somewhat disappointing second behind Father Ryan. Leading MBA were Mathews and Hall who both shot 77. The Big Red still moved into the Region, but now they knew that only the winner moved on to the State. With this thought in mind, seniors Mathews, Barksdale, and Hall met together the day before the Region and decided the time had come for senior leadership. The next day, all three seniors rose to the occasion as MBA posted a solid 314 on the scoreboard. Although MBA had shot 314 to win the Region the year before, this score was not strong enough to beat Clarksville High who shot an impressive 306. The Linksters, however, had a bittersweet win as they had finally beaten Father Ryan. Hall's 71 and Mathew's 78 led the Big Red. Allowing also for some sweet revenge, Hall beat Clarksville's Bill Maynard in a play-off to win the individual Region title. By virtue of winning the Region, Hall went on to the State, but this year for the first time, he would be without his team. In the State tournament, Hall shot 76-79 for a 155 that placed him in eleventh.

The Big Red had another fine season, and prospects for the future are promising. Senior leadership will be missed on the Hill, but the horoscope has a state championship for the Big Red in the near future.

Coach Caldwell leads the Linksters.

Bike Race

Fruit of the Loom Guys

Ultimate Four

Bikers from Hell

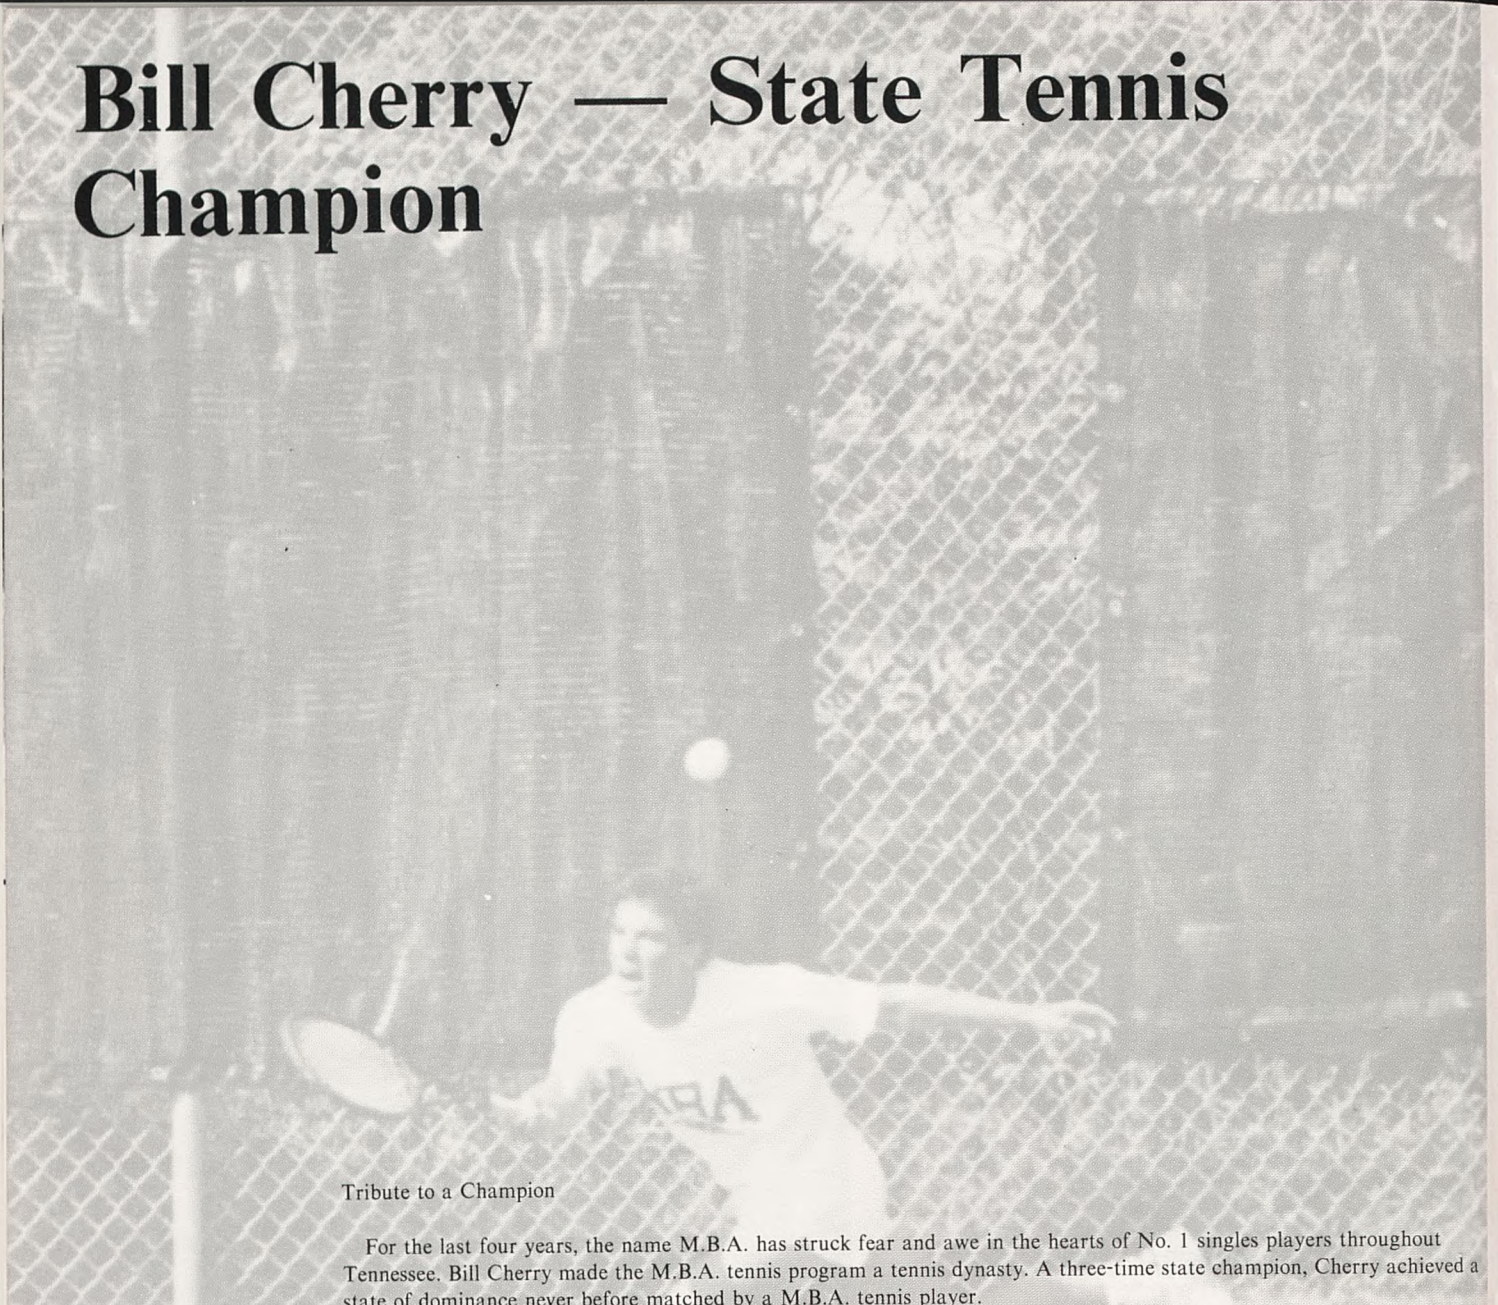

After months of weight training and agilities drills, the teams were finally prepared for the Bell Ringer Bike Race on May 23. Scott Yates extrapolated the situation and predicted an easy victory. As the race began, "Easy Cheese" (Dunkerly, Koon, Winston, and Norment) jumped into the lead on a very chic bike. Other contenders were the "Ultimate Four" (Clark, Weldon, Cherrington, Rice), the "Fruit of the Loom Guys" (Ikard, Davis, Jones, Bittles), "Nameth's Four" (Nameth, Frist, Hall, Cigarran), "Bikers from Hell" (Duthie, Yates, Lott, Smith), The generic "Junior School Team" (Gaston, Salines, Curtis, Brown), "The Comforters" (Eliphaz, Bildad, Zophar, Elihio), and the Roadkills. Highlights of the race were the surprise showing of a freshman bike-demon and the tossing of Woody's cookies. In the end, it was the "Fruit of the Loom Guys" who took first place with a time of 36 min. 21 sec. Revenge was promptly vowed by The "Bikers from Hell".

Bill Cherry — State Tennis Champion

Tribute to a Champion

For the last four years, the name M.B.A. has struck fear and awe in the hearts of No. 1 singles players throughout Tennessee. Bill Cherry made the M.B.A. tennis program a tennis dynasty. A three-time state champion, Cherry achieved a state of dominance never before matched by a M.B.A. tennis player.

When the 16 year-old freshman, 1985's H.V.A.C. champ from Ensworth, took over the No. 1 singles spot on the M.B.A. squad, he had already made an impressive accomplishment. As he compiled an excellent record, eyes began to open. Those same opened eyes nearly popped out, however, when the young hot-shot defeated Hall Jindhunatha of Baylor 6-4, 6-4 to capture the 1986 state crown. Cherry became MBA's first champion since 1966; the world of high school tennis began to take notice.

The next year, Cherry had to show the school, the state, and the nation that he was no fluke. He did just that, once again embarrassing his elder foes. Cherry established himself as a dominant force by winning his second state title, defeating Lee Burns of McCallie 7-5, 6-0; he also led his team to the state team championship, last won by M.B.A. in 1966.

Cherry's junior year of competition was once again filled with success; but as Cherry went for his third state title, all eyes were on him. Cherry stayed strong and reached the state finals of 1988; but this time, he would fall to Germantown's Chip Sterns 4-6, 6-2, 3-6. Cherry had been dethroned.

In the 1989 season, there were few who could foresee a state championship for the Big Red team. The main concern was whether or not Cherry would be able to regain his crown. Cherry, however, knew the answer to that question. He had played the whole season with vision and determination. His final season record was 25-1, with his one loss coming two days before the state finals to Baylor's Chuck Coleman. These two would meet again in the finals for one of the most exciting and classic matchups ever. With a massive and inspirational crowd roaring him on, Cherry defeated Coleman 6-1, 2-6, 7-6, (7-4 tiebreaker), regained his crown, and assured his fame as one of the best. He became one of three three-time state champions in Tennessee history.

Cherry exemplified the qualities of a champion on and off the court. He usually outplayed and always outclassed his opponents. Cherry has truly been a "Gentleman, Scholar, Athlete," and his leadership will be greatly missed.

Organizations

Student Council '88-89

The 1988-89 school year was an exciting and productive one for the MBA Student Council. Along with Dr. Paschall as our new headmaster came new opportunities and a fresh outlook on MBA life, and Dr. Paschall's receptiveness to new ideas and consistent encouragement were of great value to the Student Council's work. The Student Council itself, headed by veteran administrator and leader extraordinaire John Smithwick, chalked up many, many wonderful achievements during the year, beginning way back in August of '88 at a sweltering weekend retreat on the Buffalo River. During this organizational getaway, many plays were made, ideas formulated, problems discussed, and rodents hunted, resulting in preparations for the coming year and meaningful new friendships among the members of the council. One of the primary objectives for the year was greater participation with our sister schools, a strengthening of ties if you will. In our ongoing spirit of glastnost, the student council of M.B.A. engineered a student council swap with Harpeth Hall, in which the young ladies spent half a day visiting the dark recesses of the Hill, and the Big Red men likewise examined the Honeybear campus for a day, providing education and even fun for all. Similarly, a schoolwide retreat to Beersheba Springs with St. Cecilia was a profound success, resulting in the creation of strong bonds between the students (some bonds stronger than others, of course). In addition, the student council continued its tradition of community service with the soup kitchen and a drive to collect winter coats for the underprivileged. The most important accomplishments of the council, however, occurred in the carpeted arena of the Roberts Room, wherein often the fate and welfare of you, the student, hung in the balance as though issues were tackled and vigorously debated. This powerful assembly, especially the younger members, will doubtless continue this year's tradition of excellence in the future.

Honor Council

Andy Patterson, Pres.

The Honor Code of Montgomery Bell Academy is regarded by many as the most important and distinguishing organization on the Hill. Founded in 1945 by Dr. R.L. Sager, the Honor Code's laws dealing with lying, cheating, stealing, and deceiving are enforced by the Code's governing body, the Honor Council. The Council is composed of four seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, two freshmen, and one Junior School student. The Council's adviser is the headmaster, Dr. Paschall.

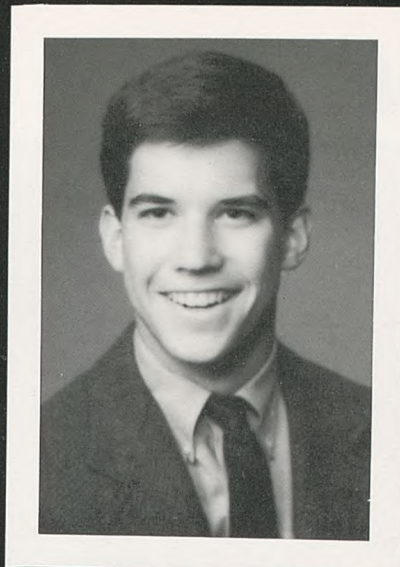

The Council hears cases of students who reportedly transgressed the boundaries of the code. The Council dismisses an innocent student and assesses proper punishment to any student found guilty. This year, as usual, the Council faced many difficult decisions; but, all in all, the year went well, for the number of cases was relatively small. The Council was led by Seniors Andy Patterson, Matt Bumstead, George Crawford, and Jason Burroughs.

This year ten new students were inducted into MBA's honorary fraternity, Totomoi, which represents the ultimate goal of a student achievement or participation in scholastics, publications, citizenship, athletics, forensics and dramatics, student government, and other extra-curricular activities.

In the winter tapping, John Smithwick and Matt Bumstead, the two current members, inducted seniors Rhoads Hall, Jason Burroughs, Billy Frist, Brad Griffin, Andy Patterson, and David Strayhorn while Mr. Novak led the ceremony.

This spring saw the induction of four junior members: Alden Smith, Reñard François, Matt Fisher, and Devraj Basu. There were two events which deem special. First was Rhoads Hall's eloquent delivery at the podium.

The second event was the long-overdue induction of Coach Tommy Owen into Totomoi in honor of his loyal support and dedication to the boys and the school.

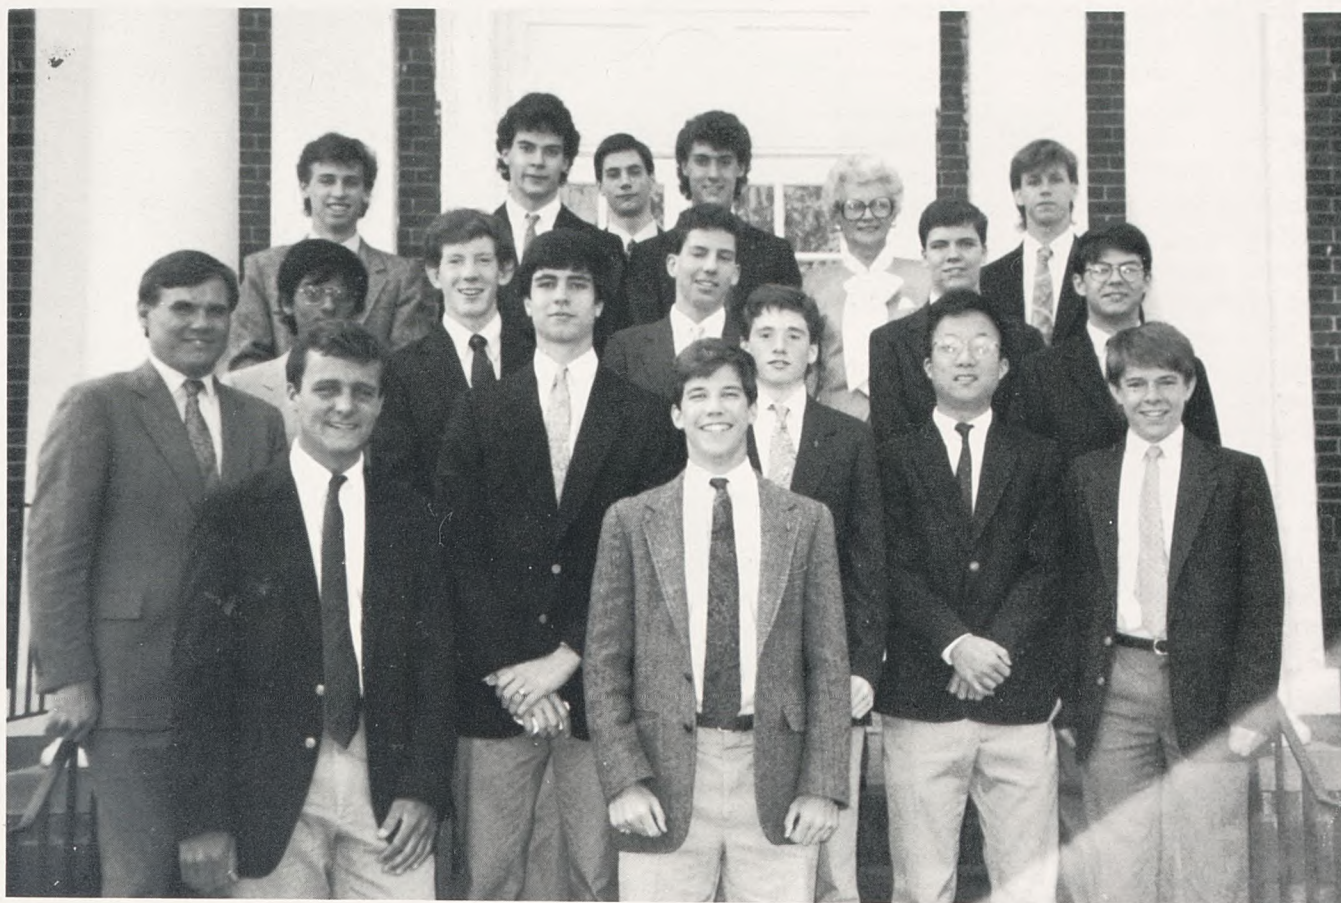

Let us hope that the ideals which Totomoi represents will be an inspiration and guide for all students at Montgomery Bell Academy for years to come.

Junior Honor Society

Membership of the Junior Honor Society as of February, 1989 consisted of Micah Bennett, John Dunkerley, Alan Hassler, Casey Jones, Wally Jones, Brian Norment, Babu Paruchuri, Seth Robertson, Jackson Wray, and David Wyckoff. New inductees were John Arendale, Mark Bittles, Jody Cummings, David Daniels, Luke Davis, James Nash, Greg Parker, George Rietz, John Schweikert, Matthew Simpson, Andrew Vahrenkamp, and John Wesley. # The Bell

The Bell has come under new leadership this year. Mr. Haywood Moxley took up the ominous task of being the faculty advisor to the yearbook, and he has undertaken the role with unprecedented vigor, revitalizing the staff with the very spacious, if not air-conditioned, yearbook room in the attic of the Ball building. In addition, the staff acquired an Apple Mac Plus to assist the Copy Staff. Senior Thayer Smith helped to collect the funds to purchase the computer through sale of stylish MBA sweatshirts.

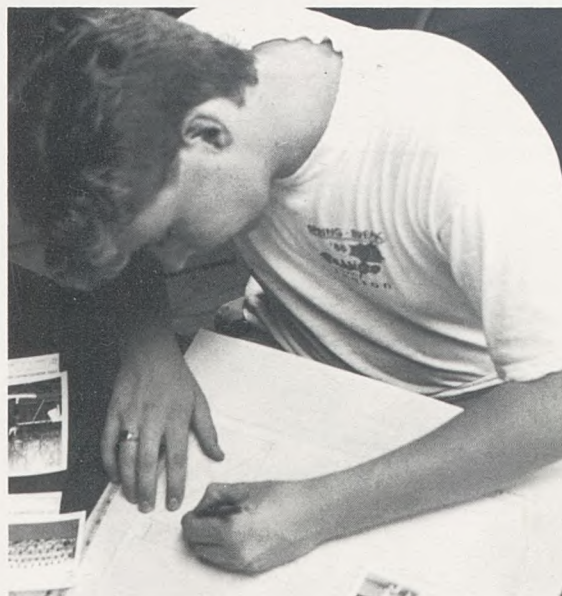

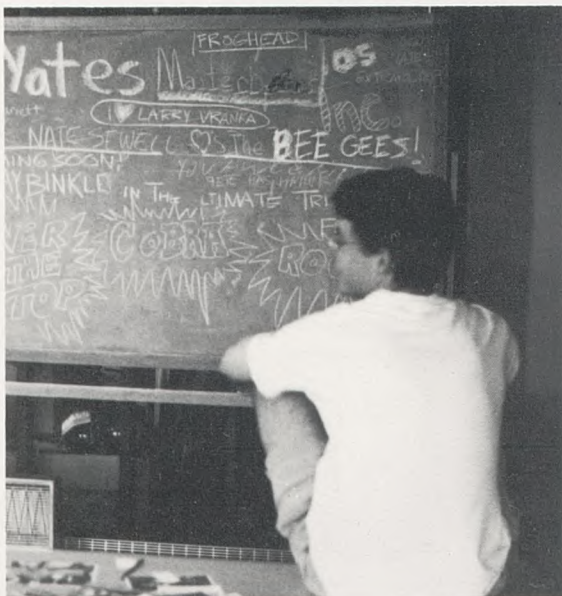

Senior editor-in-chief David Strayhorn also put great energy and time into making the yearbook a success. The other Senior editors, Matt Bumstead, Andy Patterson, Jeff Joe, Thayer Smith, Mark Lavigne, and Chet Frist all did their own little part for the annual. Their work in the first half of the year was greatly appreciated.

Fortunately The Bell possessed brilliant Junior editors to catch up the slack when the Seniors embarked upon their Senior slide, late in October. David Haslam and Andrew Coulam rescued the layout staff midyear with inexhaustible energy and enthusiasm, and they will continue their leadership next year as co-editors-in-chief. Similarly, Hal Jones revamped the copy staff with his vast organizational powers, and Pieter Foster sacrificed his time in the light of day, working innumerable hours in the recesses of the MBA dark room.

Optimism is running high for next year's staff. The Juniors have gained considerable experience this year and shall put this experience to use next year. There will be valuable additions to The Bell staff as well. Kevin Kruse, Brandon Barrett, and Scott Burrow will take over as Features editor, Sports editor, and Business editor, respectively. Next year's annual will be one of the first in recent years to arrive on time, we promise.

Not pictured: Oman Sloan and Lanson Hyde, sports.

The 1988-'89 year was certainly a memorable one for The Bell Ringer. Co-Editors-in-Chief Jason Burroughs and Marion Southall guided their journalistic vessel through numerous storms of misspellings, sentence fragments, and lack of subject-verb agreement, but by the end of the year had gathered and inspired their crew and made their publication successful. Several notable features of the '88-'89 Bell Ringer were Richard Gann's Ramble/Poor Richie's Almanac, an ultra-conservative excursion through the world of politics; the Fox's Den, a student advice column written by Renard Francois and his friends, Tom Lance, Mike Seshul, and John Smithwick; several controversial editorials and articles; and the ever-popular and squeaky-clean last wills and testaments of the senior class.

The quality of The Bell Ringer was recognized by the Department of Journalism at the University of Tennessee, which awarded The Bell Ringer its highest rating — SUPERIOR. Also, photography editor Devraj Basu won second place in photography at the annual newspaper contest at Belmont College.

Archives

The M.B.A. literary magazine, Archives, has served once again as a creative outlet for those who have felt restricted by the strict formats required in the general curriculum. This year's editors were Jeff Joe, Mike Page, and Prescott Glynn, along with Dr. Batten, who returned for his fourth straight year as faculty advisor. Many thanks must be given to the M.B.A. Mother's Auxiliary for subsidizing a larger-than-bargained-for last issue. The growing size of this year's issues are promising signs of yet larger issues to come. With the submissions of poetry, prose, and artwork, and with the induction of photography, Archives has increased not only in size but in quality. Best of luck to the future editors in hopes that this bastion of individuality and creativity never fails.

Service Club

The Service Club officers hard at work — notice the stringent dress code.

This year the Service Club enjoyed great success under the leadership of President George Crawford, Vice President Chet Frist, Secretary Rhoads Hall, and Sergeants at Arms Jonathan Harwell and Frank Drowota. As one of the most important organizations at M.B.A., this year's Service Club made tremendous efforts in aiding the school and community. The year began on a promising note with a magnificent array of members, all specially talented. A "point" system instilled by last year's president Edgar Bueno was again used to insure that all members worked an equal share.

The Service Club started early in the year with the first varsity home game. The next job came with the Belle Meade Mansion Fall Fest. Other jobs included delivering papers for the Palm Paper Drive of Children's Hospital, the Salvation Army Holiday Distribution, a Halloween Party for underprivileged children, numerous basketball games, and even counting money for the American Heart Association. The final jobs the Service Club members worked were the home soccer games and the State Track Meet. Well, that's about it, but all of us here hope that next year will be as good as if not better than this year.

Art Program

The 1988-1989 Art Program underwent major changes this year. Mrs. Rosie Paschall joined Mr. Jim Womack to give diversity and strength to studio art classes and the art program.

This year's art studio class was comprised of an unprecedented twenty-three students from both the high school and the junior school. Due to this large number of students, two high school studio art classes were created. These students were given instruction in different mediums such as ink, chalk, pencil, water color, and pastels. Works from students were displayed in the library. The course proved challenging to experienced students and was able to bring out the artistic talents in students having little or no experience in art.

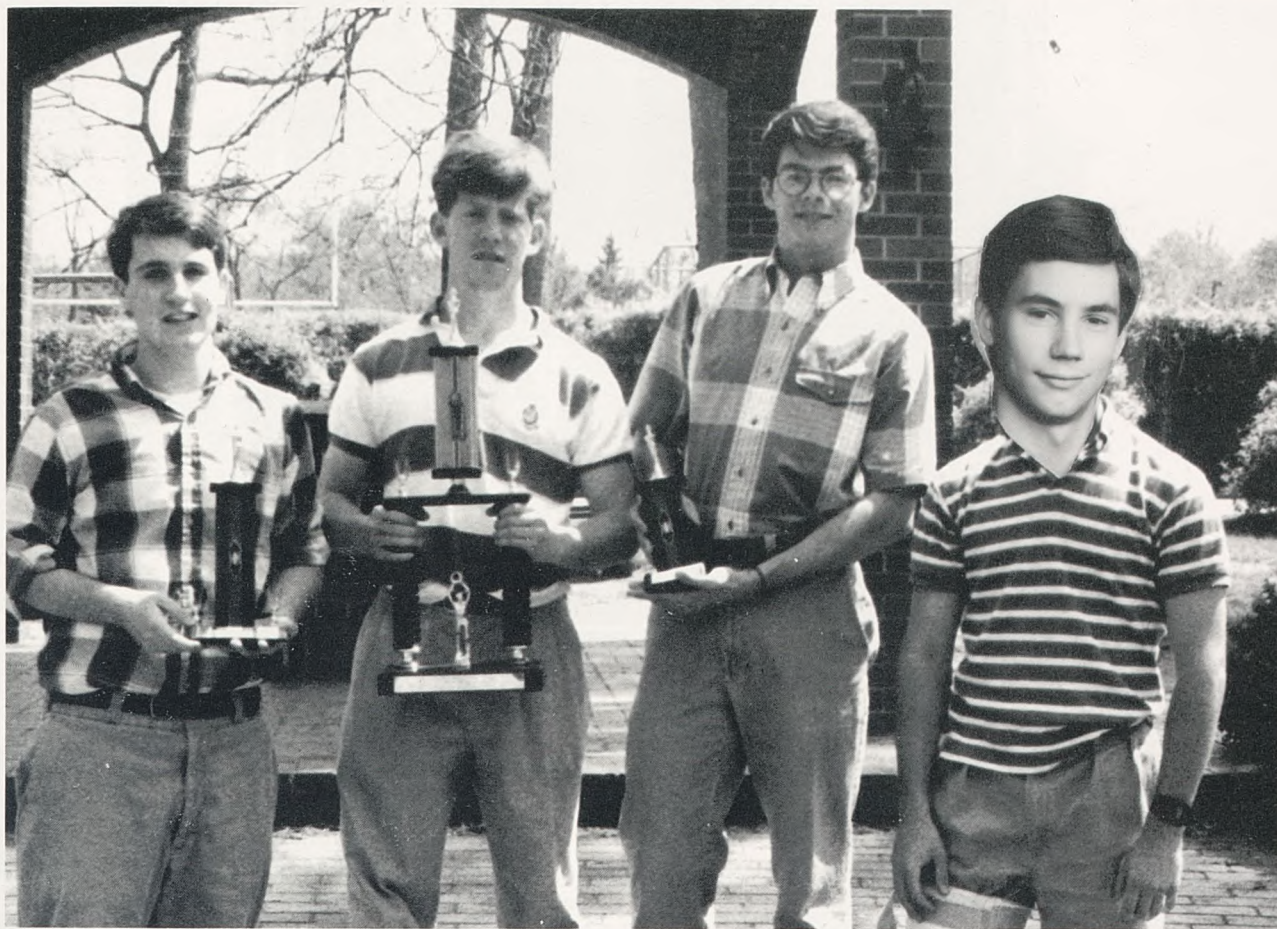

Great attention was paid to updating the art department. A shipment of art materials and supplies as well as a new printing press were added. Some students not involved in studio art became involved in art independently. For any student wishing to explore art, the art department staff offered instruction as well as creative criticism.

Though the art department at M.B.A. is relatively new, it shows promise in enabling M.B.A. students to develop their artistic skills.

Chess Club

Officers: Chris Steele, Michael O'Hare, David Strayhorn, Mark Thrailkill with body pose by Alex Rogers.

This year the MBA Chess Team experienced a massive revitalization. Through intensive preparation and individual help from Mark Ishee and Morris Lewis, two very strong players in their own right, the team managed to stun their lackadaisical opponents and bring home some serious hardware for the trophy case.

After several preparatory intra-squad tournaments, the high school varsity team of Mark Thrailkill, Michael O'Hare, Chris Steele, David Strayhorn, and Alex

Rogers, and the junior school team of Sachin Vaikunth, Winn Keathley, Andrew Varenkamp, Jason Bennett, and J.T. Steele traveled to the Dickson National Guard Armory for the regional tournament. After a brief struggle with the door (the key to which some airheaded bureaucrat forgot to give to the organizers), the team entered and began its match. After a first round struggle against second-seeded Brentwood High, the Varsity cruised home to its first Regional Championship in the school's history. The Junior High team also scored an impressive third place in its competition.

At the State Tournament held at MBA, the team finished an outstanding third place despite a slim defeat by eventual champions St. Benedict's of Auburndale and a loss in a speed-chess playoff (5 minutes per player per game) to MUS. Despite the loss of three senior starters, the team hopes to come back stronger than ever next year and to bring a state title home to the Hill.

Chorus

Johnson, Frist, and Harwell enter the Twilight Zone.

The MBA Chorus began a third year under the leadership of Michael Kemp and accompanist Marion Ross. From about 150 candidates, 60 male voices were selected, and Brad Griffin was elected president. The chorus spent the entire first semester preparing for the Christmas Concert. This benefit for Nashville's needy children was a great success. The features of the concert were a trio of Joon-Ho Yu, Breen Fazier, and Michael Ligon, and a piano solo by Drew Robison.

The second semester was much more active for the chorus. The performance before the convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution featured a commissioned arrangement of the "Star Spangled Banner." The next performance, with the Washington and Lee University Chorus, and the one at the Father-Son Banquet, featured a World-premier recital of a commissioned medley of famous Hoagy Carmichael songs. The final performance at Commencement, though, featured the annual concert of traditional patriotic tunes.

The chorus showed its high level of performance at all of its concerts this year. This MBA men's chorus, beginning to thrive and gain repute under director Mr. Kemp, is looking forward to a future of greatness.

The Cheerleaders

In rain, sleet, or snow the cheerleaders were prepared to give it their best.

The 1989 M.B.A. cheerleaders consisted of Beth Sullins, Jennifer Rose, Marsha Ivey, Carter Murray, Ellen and Josey Sevier, Marguerite Nielson, and Paige Ferragina. These dedicated young women were hard at work as early as June of last summer in preparation for the upcoming athletic seasons. While attending a cheerleading camp, the cheerleaders garnered an enormous amount of awards and, in the immortal words of Ms. Waugh, did "very well."

This dutiful group trudged through the entire football season without the traditional group of male cheerleaders and did an extremely good job in spite of that hardship. We should all be appreciative of the efforts of this group. They came over to M.B.A. every Friday afternoon bubbling with enthusiasm — enthusiasm that probably would have been better spent somewhere other than in the face of a somewhat apathetic M.B.A. student body. Their efforts deserve to be applauded — they did what they did because they enjoyed it. We should all be grateful they cared enough to cheer, even if some of us did not.

At the beginning of basketball season, Andy Patterson, Jimmy Thompson, Ray Brooks, Bo Bartholomew, Chris Steele, Brett and Grant Seshul, and John Gupton joined the group. While not exactly firing the student body up to new levels of enthusiasm, the male counterparts certainly showed that M.B.A. spirit was not totally checked. As the basketball season progressed, the haltime pyramids got more daring and — Lo! — the crowds swelled! By the end of the season, the cheerleaders were very impressed with the sudden resurgence of school spirit — led, of course, by the class of '89.

The cheerleaders enjoyed their seasons, and I, for one, as both a player and a cheerleader, am more acutely aware, for example, of the time it takes to put together some decent routines. The cheerleaders would like to thank certain members of the student body (you know who you are!) and especially the Love Bunny (Ms. Waugh), who was there to defuse crisis situations and lend her own experience and guidance to us in a manner appreciated by all.

This year's MBA chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes was an exciting time for all participants. The group assembled under the leadership of president Matt Bumstead and officers: vice-president Drew Robison, secretary Rhoads Hall, and treasurer George Clements. To kick the year off, a joint fiasco was held with Harpeth Hall at West End Methodist church. The event included several skits, games, and a good time for all. The meetings this year provided a time of spiritual growth, encouragement and fellowship for all. Highlights of the year included a repeat of the "Chubby Bunny" contest and two-time winner Rhoads Hall, a Christmas caroling venture through Belle Meade, the performance of an acoustic band, several joint meetings with Harpeth Hall, and a co-ed lock-in. Speakers for this year included Dr. Christian Niemeyer, Rudy Calis, Phil Rouch, and former ambassador Joe Rogers. Discussions were also held on peer-pressure, sex and dating, and Bible study. This year FCA benefitted greatly from its sponsors Phil Rouch, Coach Bennett, and Mr. Poston. The newly elected officers for next year's chapter of FCA are president George Clements, vice-president Richard Arendale, secretary Johnny Lamb, and treasurer Richard Cummins. Next year promises to repeat this year's fun-filled FCA experience.

Big Red Club

Worcester Bryan, Vice-President

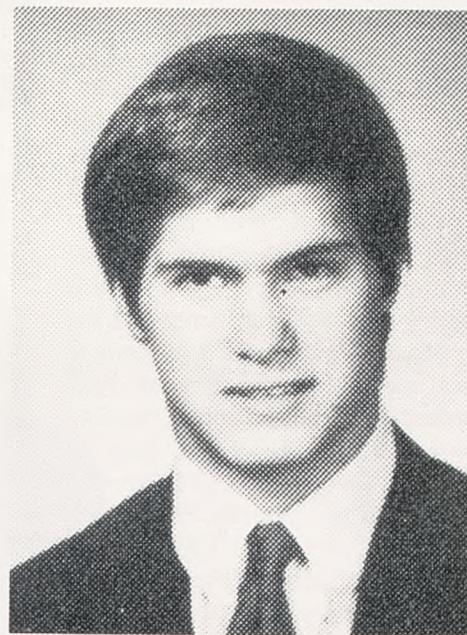

Matt Bumstead, Secretary

James Gooch, President

Bo Healy, Treasurer

Kelsey Fitzpatrick, Events Chairman

Under the leadership of "Father-Figure" James Gooch, and of a strong supporting cast, the Big Red Club soared to new heights. The Club sponsored many events this year, the most significant being the Homecoming Dance and the "Right Field Rowdies."

The band featured at the Homecoming was MBA's own Rub the Buddha, which played classic tunes all night, including Charles Treadway's heartwarming version of "Tomorrow." Moreover, this was one of the only Homecoming dances in history to MAKE money. In the midst of all the wild boogie, both Bo Healy and Mr. Drake were quoted as being "moved to tears."

During baseball season the Club again sponsored the "Right Field Rowdies." Throughout the '89 baseball season, Chef Fitzpatrick swayed crowds with his culinary delights and even solicited raves from many city-wide magazines. Forrest Conner, one of MBA's finest players, said of the Rowdies: "They really helped. I enjoyed the roaring crowds and the leftover scraps of bread." The year ended on a positive note when Worcester Bryan was voted "Big Red Club Vice President of the Year," a tremendous honor that was well-deserved.

Debate

by Eugene Park and Hal Jones

The Montgomery Bell Academy Debate Team once again maintained the high standards set by previous squads. With the newly recruited Renard Francis and the silent leadership of Jonathan Reeve, the debate team launched into new heights. The team started its year slowly, but finished red-hot with its ever present in-state victories. The first tournament attended by Mr. Tate and his "boyz" was the highly competitive Wake Forest University Tournament. The varsity team of debate captain Jonathan Reeve and Eugene Park scrapped its way to a double-octafinal finish, falling to a strong Charles Henderson team. In addition, the junior varsity team of Will Gray and Bill "Satan" Sastry reached a ninth place round.

After this somewhat disappointing finish, the assistant coach Kevin Hamrick had a long talk with his debate posse. A new enthusiasm vitalized the squad as Hamrick emphasized the need for hard work and practice (this advice was forgotten by Hal "Lazy Bones" Jones who blissfully slept through the meeting). In spite of the lackadaisical attitude of some members, the team began to win humbly and lose with honor. At the St. Marks Invitational, the team of Jonathan Reeve and Eugene Park reached the octafinal round, beating consensus top ten teams such as Greenhill from Texas and Edgemont of New York. At the Glenbrook South Tournament in Chicago, the mental toughness of the team was tested by the great number of schools present at this national tournament. The JV team of Paruchuri/Davis won first in their division. This accomplishment was reminiscent to that achieved by the legendary team of Fulmer/Kahlon two years ago. In addition, the team of Park/Reeve placed ninth out of a field of 120 teams and were just edged out of individual honors.

In the St. Andrews North Carolina Tournament, the team wreaked havoc among the elite teams of the Atlantic Coast. Under the leadership of Jonathan Reeve and his "Yippie-kye-Ye" attitude, the round robin team of Park/Reeve placed second. In addition, Jonathan Reeve was named the second best speaker of the tournament. To top off MBA's performance, the team of Paruchuri/Davis placed first in the normal varsity division. This was the last tournament at which Jonathan was to be seen. He mysteriously disappeared, and rumor has it that he is somewhere vacationing in Greece. After Jonathan's departure, the team of Eugene Park and the newly inspired Hal Jones, with his Puritan work ethic, marched up to the University of Pittsburgh where they trampled other teams. Through the brilliant insight and helpful advice of Mr. Tate, the team reached the quarterfinal round. Hal was named fifth speaker and Eugene won the top debater award at the tournament by a large margin.

Not only was the debate team successful on the national circuit, but it was certainly one of the most competitive in the Southeast. The first tournament attended by the MBA team was the Homewood Invitational in Florence, Alabama. The undefeated JV team of Paruchuri and Davis placed first in their respective division. In addition, the team of Yu/Jones reached the quarterfinal round while teammates Reeve/Park reached the semifinals. All members received individual honors. At the University of Alabama, the team of Park/Jones reached the semifinal round and were seeded first entering the elimination rounds. Hal Jones was named fifth place speaker and Eugene was barely edged out for first speaker. In the team's last trip to Alabama, the team placed very well among the highly rated teams at the Vestava Hills Over-the-Mountain classic. The team of Davis/Paruchuri fell in the quarterfinals, forfeiting to the other MBA team of Kahlon/Park. Jay Kahlon was named the eighth place debater, Craig David was fifth, and Eugene Park was third.

The Montgomery Bell Academy Debate Team was virtually unbeatable within the great state of Tennessee. All eventually fell to the tide of the mighty Big Red. Starting their rampage at the Maplewood Invitational, the team of "Cooter" Paruchuri and "Buster" Park compiled an undefeated record to place first in the Varsity Division. The team continued their winning ways when they attended the Hunters Lane Tournament. The team of "Buster" Park and Joon-Ho "Hoss" Yu were unbeaten to place first in this field. At the Woodbury Classic, the team of Eugene Park and Jonathan Reeve placed third while teammates Will "Booger" Gray and Babu Paruchuri placed first. At Hume-Fogg, the team of Paruchuri/Davis placed second, succeeded only by fellow members Hal Jones and Eugene Park who placed first.

To top off all achievements by the squad, MBA will once again send two teams to the national tournament in Denver, Colorado. Through capturing the top two spots at the district tournament, the team qualified for this prestigious honor. The teams representing our school will be the team of Craig Davis and Babu Paruchuri with the team of Eugene Park and Hal Jones. Although the team has not yet attended the State Championship, it is certainly the odd-on favorite because of its fine record in Tennessee.

Mock Trial

The Mock Trial program at MBA enjoyed its greatest success in Big Red history, capturing the Nashville city championship and competing in their first ever state tournament. After weeks of expert coaching from Bass, Berry, and Sims attorneys Tim Warnock, Chris Whitson, Margaret Berry (no relationship to the aforementioned partner), and Steve Anderson (not our beloved member of the class of '90), two teams from MBA began four rounds in trials in the Metro Courthouse in pursuit of the city title.

The case the teams tried was a petition by a high school basketball player carrying the AIDS virus to the high school team from which the principle had removed him (her).

The red team consisted of plaintiff attorneys Richard Gann and Rénard Francis, plaintiff witnesses Jason Burroughs, Rhoads Hall, and David Strayhorn, defense attorneys Lawrence Berman and Babu Paruchuri, and defense witnesses John Hays, David Trainer, and Charles Israel. The white team was composed of attorneys Marion Southall, Simon Westlake, Steve Anderson, David Mason, and Rabin Nimmo, and witnesses Brian Stephenson, David Lott, Willie Gray, Jay Binkley, Winston Caldwell, and Martin Roberts.

Both teams faired well, and the red team took the city, taking four unanimous wins over teams from Overton, Pearl-Cohn, Hillsboro, and Father Ryan, and edging out Harpeth Hall, which also scored four wins, but one by a split decision. The red team began another month of homework, athletics, and oh, yes — mock trial training in preparation for the state tournament held at the Doubletree Hotel and Nashville Courthouse.

The Big Red turned in four good performances against teams from Bradley County, Chattanooga Central, Knoxville Farragut, and Johnson City, and found themselves only one ballot away from the championship trial. Because of the intricate and dubious scoring system, that lost ballot moved the Big Red from second to sixth, stalling MBA's hopes of a trip to the national tournament.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Tate and the lawyers at Bass, Berry, and Sims for their dedication during the preparation for the tournament and for the fabulous party at Chris Whitson's after the state tournament.

Spaghetti Supper

On October 21, M.B.A. became a madhouse of action as the 49th annual Spaghetti Supper commenced the celebrated Homecoming festivities. For weeks, the Mothers' Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Jeanie Hastings, slaved to make this annual event a very smooth and successful occasion. By the work of the Auxiliary, Snowbird, the lovable mascot for the weather department of the WSMV television network in Nashville, lectured Student Body President John Smithwick on the "ethics of ticket selling." The student body, incensed by Snowbird's words or, more likely, by the day off given to individuals who sold 70 dollars or more or to classes who sold an average of 50 dollars, brought in more money to the school than ever (each class made the quota, and several Sophomores were heard praising the name of Carter Brothers).

On the eve of the Homecoming game, the coat-and-tied masses of students joined parents, faculty, and alumni to chow down on the spaghetti-salad-brownie dinner made famous by M.B.A. The Freshman waitresses solemnly provided their indispensable services and helped make the event a great success.

Thanks, Moms!

Expectations are high for the Spaghetti Supper of 1989 despite the change in the gambling laws in the Tennessee legislature. Such harmless activities as school raffles have now been outlawed in Tennessee, so M.B.A. is in a quandary where raising the Spaghetti Supper money is concerned. Mr. Drake, the longtime backbone of the administration, proposes such activities as auctions to replace the now illegal raffle. With Mr. Drake's inexhaustible energy and Dr. Paschall's amazing ingenuity, all will turn out for the best.

Homecoming activities started well this year as an inspired Alden Smith returned Pearl Cohn's opening kickoff eighty-seven yards for a touchdown. By half-time, the dominating Big Red put the crowd in great spirits for the Homecoming ceremony. The turbulent mass of MBA fans then was treated to the beautiful Jennifer Rose and her court. The mighty Red took the field again soon after and smashed the awe-struck Pearl-Cohn team 44-0. The next day, at the Homecoming Dance, Rub the Buddha, composed of MBA students present and past, gave a fabulous performance that made the dance a memorable occasion.

Administration

Dr. Douglas D. Paschall

Though this is Dr. Paschall's first year on the Hill, the students and faculty alike believe that he is the visionary leader which MBA needs in order to meet the future challenges of sustaining a national-caliber college preparatory school within a changing academic environment. Dr. Paschall has made clear that he is impressed by the courteous demeanor and seriousness of purpose of MBA students, the qualifications and conscientious dedication of the faculty, and the manifest strengths of the academic and extracurricular programs of the school. Likewise, he has expressed his approval and his support of a new emphasis in the arts and plans to supervise expansion of opportunities in music drama as well as in creative writing and the visual arts. In addition to his duties as Headmaster this year, Dr. Paschall has taught Junior English and been advisor to the Honor Council. His wisdom, sense of humor, and active leadership have given new energy to Montgomery Bell Academy, and we all look forward to his future years with the school.

Mr. Michael Drake

Michael Drake is the assistant headmaster, an AP American History teacher, and senior class advisor. Mr. Drake believes in gentlemanly behavior, hard work, participation in school-related activities, and community service. He has the philosophy that every boy deserves equal time. A large part of his job consists of handling student problems. He is pleased that the problems seldom involve anything more than students' inappropriate absences. Being willing to work with the bad side of student behavior is an invaluable asset to his ability to do his job well; but Mr. Drake insists it's not as important as being thick-skinned and willing to take criticism. His overall goal is to be helpful. Mr. Drake's good-natured and lively personality makes him popular and well-respected by all the MBA community.

Mr. Drake has a B.A. from the University of Virginia in History and an M.A. from Peabody College in Social Studies. He is currently taking classes part-time at TSU where he expects to receive an Ed.D., a doctoral degree in education administration.

Dr. Paschall grew up in West Tennessee and graduated from the University of the South where he was President of the Order of Gownsmen (student government), a varsity football and basketball player, and Phi Beta Kappa. He received his M.A. and D.Phil. degrees in English Literature from the University of Oxford, while studying there as a Rhodes Scholar, and before coming to MBA had been professor of English, interim Director of Admissions, and Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Sewanee.

Dr. Harold Crowell

Dr. Harold Crowell is a busy man, not only because he is Dean of Faculty and Students, but also because he is chairman of the science department. He teaches physics and is the Junior Class sponsor. His thorough teaching method and enjoyable manner enable him to relate to students on a personal basis. He received his Ph.D. from Vanderbilt. Not tolerating misbehavior, he upholds the great MBA reputation with discipline and concern for students.

Dr. G. Edward Gaffney

Dr. Edward Gaffney, Principal of the Junior School, helps stimulate and prepare the seventh and eighth graders for High School. He teaches Greek, Latin I, and AP Lyric. Dr. Gaffney is also the seventh and eighth grade demerit supervisor. He received his M.A., B.A. and Ph.D. from Vanderbilt, along with summer programs at the American Academy in Rome, the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, and the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome. In addition to his duties in the Junior School, Dr. Gaffney also sponsors the Junior Honor Society and is a key member in the Travel Club.

Mr. James Poston

Mr. Poston has been a member of the MBA faculty for 27 years. He has his B.A. from Belmont and his M.A. from Peabody. Mr. Poston has been the director of the MBA Players since 1961. Mr. Poston came to MBA in 1959 and worked until 1968. He then went to Florida to teach and later returned to MBA in 1971. He is now the guidance/drug counselor. He is the varsity tennis coach and was named state coach of the year 86-87 and one of the eight finalists for national coach in '87.

Mr. Laird Smith, Jr.

Mr. Laird Smith is the director of buildings and grounds at M.B.A. He graduated from M.B.A. in 1958 and returned to the Hill in December of '73.

Mr. Smith takes pride in his work, and wishes to instill a similar pride in the students by providing them with a beautiful campus. This hard work has not gone unnoticed: last year, M.B.A. placed second in the private school category in a city-wide school campus competition.

Mr. John Bennett

During his more than 25 years with MBA, Mr. Bennett has been a valuable asset to the MBA community. In the classroom, Mr. Bennett can be found teaching Algebra II and Geometry. In addition to his teaching duties, he holds the important job of Athletic Director. He is the coach of the Freshman Basketball team, sponsor to the Service Club, and also sponsor to F.C.A. He received his B.E. from Vanderbilt University.

Ms. Mary Comfort Stevens

Ms. Stevens is the college counselor at M.B.A. She gives of herself to help each student make plans for the future by helping him pick out a college and complete applications. On Wednesday, March 22, Ms. Stevens had a little boy, Edward Stevens Gottfried, and left the college counseling in the capable hands of Mrs. Napier and Mr. Drake while she took a maternity leave. After studying at Mount Holyoke and the Sorbonne in Paris and receiving her B.A. in European Literature and French, she worked at Phillips Academy, where she taught French for a year and worked with admissions, alumni relations, and college counseling for the next eight.

Office Staff

Mrs. Bradshaw

Mrs. Garriot

Mrs. Morrissey

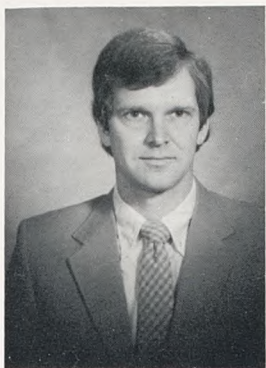

Mrs. Liles

Mrs. Sowell

The five members of the Montgomery Bell Academy Office Staff are vital to the school. Mrs. Bradshaw, the Upper School Receptionist, is always ready to help others with problems. Mrs. Garriot is the greatly-appreciated secretary of Dr. Paschall and Mr. Drake. Mrs. Liles adds her support to the office staff, especially early in the year. Mrs. Morrissey serves in the Junior School as a receptionist, and the school is very grateful to her work, as well as the vital work of Mrs. Sowell as the business manager.

The foundation of a great school is either a great student body or a great faculty — or so it has been said. But at Montgomery Bell Academy the students would never get the chance to learn nor the faculty the opportunity to teach without the Board of Trust's generosity and leadership. This year as always the Board of Trust has operated in the best interest of the community and has insured that MBA will endure and prosper.

The Board of Trust's history is closely linked with Montgomery Bell Academy's own. M.B.A.'s heritage goes back to the University of Nashville, Cumberland College, and Davidson Academy. In the early nineteenth century, Cumberland college boasted of such prominent trustees as Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk, and Andrew Johnson. Years later, Board member Dempsey Weaver used funds from Montgomery Bell's estate to establish Montgomery Bell Academy. In the late nineteenth century, the Board of Trust blocked an attempt by Peabody College to annex M.B.A. In 1911, Trustee Judge Robert Ewing introduced Mr. Isaac Ball as the new Headmaster of MBA. Under the guidance of Mr. Ball, the Board of Trust acquired a thirty-two acre tract of land with a house to provide for future expansion.

In 1956, the Board, under President John Sloan, commenced an ambitious rebuilding program which saw the completion of Brownlee O. Currey Gymnasium and the renovation of Wallace Hall. In the 1980's, under the leadership of President Joe Davis, the Board of Trust embarked on a major fund drive. Their generosity led to the construction Jack C. Massey Hall for the Junior School, the renovation of the Old Science Building, the completion of the new football stadium, the track, the baseball field, and five tennis courts. Presently, W. Ridley Wills is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

During this school year, Board members Harold W. Clark and William P. Hoffman, Jr. passed away. The school and the Board of Trustees will remember Mr. Clark and Mr. Hoffman fondly and thank them for their years of service to the community.

Development Office

Dr. Harold Whiteman and Mrs. Ruth Napier are in charge of the Development Office which raises money and serves the alumni. Last year, the program's second year, the program of annual giving raised $330,000. MBA is fortunate that this money does not have to be used to pay the annual bills as it does in most schools, but can go directly into an endowment fund managed by three brokerage firms. The interest from this fund not only pays expenses but also subsidizes each student's tuition. Last year the program was equally successful. Before 1987, the school raised money primarily by holding capital campaigns, fundraisers for specific goals such as the one in 1982 that raised $7.5 million for the Massey building, the new gym, improvement of the athletic field, and increasing the endowment. The capital campaign was officially terminated after producing a total of $11 million.

Currently, two mini-capital campaigns have been started. The Lowry Chair will provide a salary supplement as well as book and film money for Mrs. Lowry. When she retires, it is the purpose of this chair to attract the highest caliber teacher to take her place. The fund for the Lowry Chair has $460,000 of the targeted half million. The second of the mini-campaigns is for laboratory renovations of the science labs, which now has $32,000 of the targeted $160,000. The next big project to be considered is a "multi-purpose building with emphasis on the arts, including an auditorium."

Besides handling MBA's financial affairs, the Development Office serves the alumni. In 1987 the first alumni list which includes each alumnus's address and occupation was published. An updated list will be made very five years. In 1988 for the first time, an alumni magazine was printed, and the first annual alumni dinner held in December was very successful.

Commencement

This year, Dr. Paschall made many welcomed changes in the commencement process. Commencement was split into two events: the awards ceremony on a Friday night with graduation the following morning.

On the Friday after exams, faculty, students, parents and friends assembled on the front lawn of the Ball Building. Neither semi-wet chairs nor threatening skies forced the ceremony inside. Freshman Jackson Wray, Junior Devraj Basu, and Seniors David Strayhorn and Jason Burroughs all scored big with Wray receiving five awards for his five courses. The awards ceremony ran smoothly, encouraged by the cool evening weather.

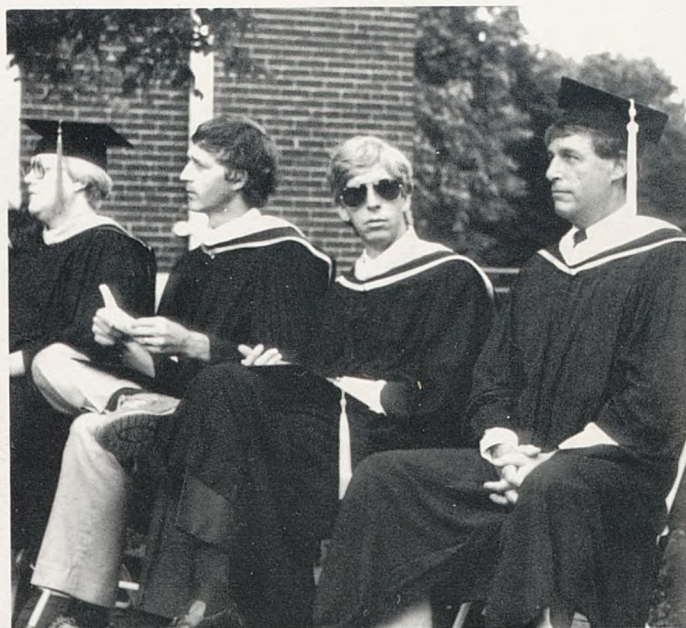

The next morning, graduation began to the delight of the seniors. Though the Juniors boycotted the event in favor of the National Achievement Tests, the faculty attended enthusiastically in their ceremonial caps and gowns. The students were impressed that graduation was much shorter and cooler than in years past. Jason Burroughs, the salutatorian, gave a stirring speech on the subject of tradition followed by David Strayhorn's valedictory speech about seizing the day. Dr. Whiteman, the retiring alumni director, also delivered his farewell address, another of his well-turned speeches that the MBA community has enjoyed over the years.

Congratulations to the graduating eighth graders and seniors, and good luck in the future!

Liberal Year in Review

by Marion Southall, Campus Liberal

Left Out

The political year of 1988-89 has been a turbulent one for us Liberals. This was the year that we took a good look at ourselves and decided where we were going. Unlike the elephants, who spent time rewording their platform so that somebody could read it, we tried to see what we could do for America.

This issue of morality and ethics is coming back to haunt the GOP. We know what happened in the presidential campaign. Gary Hart went 0 for 3 for the Democratic nomination, 0 for 2 in the same election. Why? Because some disgusting Miami newspaper found that it could sell papers investigating into someone's personal affairs. Okay, it was wrong to be doing things of that nature, but is that to say that politicians do not make mistakes? Before one answers that, let you "Conservatives" take a look at our last "President." Man, I'm glad the act is finally over.

And while the questioning continues, let us be reminded of the first four months of Bush's reign. John Tower's "alcoholism" and other affairs (no put intended) kept him from Secretary of Defense. Ollie North is complaining that he could have won his case if Bush and Reagan had testified at his trial (Both men claim that they knew nothing of the matter. In fact, Reagan claims that he doesn't remember. Spare me.). Bush even had one member of his cabinet oppose him on abortion. Hmmm . . . Seems as if the Republicans need a little bit of ethical review.

In 1988, we saw Michael Dukakis and Lloyd Bentsen make a good run for the Oval Office. And even though Mike was accused of not having any feelings, of not really making a "Massachusetts Miracle," nor of having any knowledge of foreign affairs, he still was close in the polls. However, problems came up, and the unfortunate happened. We lost. But that's all right — guess who controls Congress?

The Democrats are ready for revival, and as we enter the next decade, you will see why the so-called "pinko-Liberals" are better politicians. We might not always agree on the issues, but when we make decisions, we stick together.

Conservative Year in Review

by Richie Gann, Campus Conservative

America: In The Right

"We will have no more of those candidates who are pledged to use the same socialistic goals of our opposition."

— Ronald Reagan, 1964

With these words given to a gathering of Los Angeles Young Republicans after Barry Goldwater's blistering defeat due partly to a dissension of Republican support, Ronald Reagan forecast the ideology and platform of the Republican Party for the next thirty years. 1989 marked the end of the Reagan Revolution, but the seeds planted in the eight years of conservative thought dominating the White House have insured a continuation of peace and prosperity in the person of George Bush.

To any outsider who saw Reagan leave office, the man who had put America back on course after the Carter failure, America would have seemed to be without solid leadership. Enter, however, George Bush, the man who breezed through the '88 primaries, who even after selecting a dubiously-qualified running mate, embarrassed both in the debates and the election returns Governor Michael Dukakis, yet another left-of-center choice of the Democratic party.

Receiving a mandate for enforcing the norm, President Bush is positioned to reassert America's potential in every respect. As the Soviets are faced with making drastic arms reductions caused by a monumental budget crisis, America watches with a stern smile while the Evil Empire crumbles in economic ruin. As Japanese investors threaten U.S. markets, Bush reduces government intervention in corporate America and breaks the union's clutch on big business.

As another page turns in the register of world history, the role of the MBA Student becomes increasingly difficult. Let us not fear nor tremble beneath the thundering, dark cloud of liberalism, but let us cling more firmly to the deep roots of the tree of moderation. Let us open our minds to every idea but scrutinize fiercely, paying strict attention to future complications. If ever the legions of radicalism encroach our Hill, arm the cannons with reckless abandon, warding off the red contamination which has plundered so much of our world. Let us stride more triumphantly along the middle path.

Let us unite behind the maroon and silver banner as we continue to assert the greatness of not only Montgomery Bell Academy but also the values and traditions for which we stand.

Year at a Glance

- September 1-2 .....the Class o'89 leads the Class o'95 through the motions of registration.
- September 6.....Classes lumber to a start until Mr. Elliott unveils his fall line of men's fashions.
- September 13.....First annual Class o'90 Drag Race begins, resulting in worn-down tires, some plant carnage, and 46 demerits.
- October 1 .....The Bull actually cracks a semi-humorous joke.
- October 5 (a.m.) .....Shravan wrecks his car into Brandon Daniell's Volvo.
- (p.m.) .....Shravan wrecks the same car into a bush/car and leaves the scene of the crime.
- "Crime Stopper" Carrie Yates makes a citizen's arrest.
- October 6 .....Shravan knocks over a convenience store . . . with his car.
- October 12 .....Snowbird teaches John Smithwick a valuable moral lesson.
- October 17 .....Mayor Boner declares Bo Sundius day.
- October 20 .....Classes begin to sell supper and raffle tickets.
- October 21 .....Spaghetti Supper and Homecoming weekend. Rub the Buddha actually clears a profit for the Big Red Club.
- October 28 .....Matt Bumstead gets pushy in the Virginia meeting.
- October 31 .....Halloween; Billzebug Sastry celebrates his 2 billionth birthday.
- November 7 .....Fire Marshall condemns David Lockyear's hair — the northern sector is closed to visitors for the remainder of the month.
- November 22 .....First-ever issue of the BELL WRINGER (that's with a W)
- November 23 .....Carter McNabb and Leighton Thomas "make a run for the border" but are thwarted by the alumni patrol.
- November 25-27 .....Thanksgiving holidays are a welcome break. Stove Top Stuffing wins out 2 to 1 over potatoes.
- December 9.....Seniors decide to beat the Christmas rush and start their slide now.
- December 16-Jan. 2 .....Christmas break finally arrives. New Year's Eve, Vanderbilt's Holiday Inn receives a surprising amount of out-of-town wrestlers for the night. Several casualties are reported including a battered door.
- January 13-20.....Exams begin. Students turn to divine aid and hope for the best.
- January 26.....Because of certain astrological formations, Lindsey Cooper is able to make a startling breakthrough proving Newton's laws to be incorrect through his divinity. (He, however, got a 43 on the Physics lab)
- January 28 .....Snow; Physics students expound upon Newton's Laws with spherical ice compounds.
- January 29 .....Casualties mount as swarm technique is perfected. After school the theme was "No One Gets Out Alive" as school-time frustrations are taken out.
- early February .....The Ayatollah Khomeini puts a $5 million bounty on Rushdie's head; Kelsey Fitzpatrick plans the kill.
- February 3-June 3 .....Eyebrows are raised when the team of Davis and Stahlman is noticed to be missing 4th and 5th periods.
- February 14 .....Valentine's Day; The Bull receives a mysterious note from "the Heifer."
- February 22 .....Mysterious forms of male domination propaganda are discovered on the grounds as well as the Harpeth Hall flag. An All Points Bulletin for the thieves turns up nothing.
- February 26 .....Library is haunted by a creature who moans, eats food, climbs shelves, and will NOT take his seat.
- February 27, 3:47 PM .....MBA distance crew has snowball fight with construction crew at Pargos. Pruitt flees.
- March 1 .....Carter McNabb gets out of study hall and drops by Taco Bell to celebrate. On an unrelated note, six seniors get tapped into Totomoi.
- March 2 .....The History Room is closed for the safety of our students.
- March 4 .....MBA Mock Trial team wins the city for the first time ever.
- March 6 .....Iguana T's are revealed to the world.
- March 9 .....Seniors congregate at Krystal's for their last at-home theme of the year.
- March 11 .....Rick Barksdale begins training seriously for the Iroquois Steeplechase in May.
- March 13 .....Science fair. Dr. Kroll (sorry Shravan) "edits" the phrases "mess their pants" and "Shinehead" from various backboards.

- March 16 ..... Mr. Novak plays "My Old Kentucky Home" on harmonica accompanied by the melodious voices of the senior class.
- March 17 ..... Spring break is underway. Multitudes flock to the beaches and the babes that breed there.
- March 20 ..... Crazy college trip Juniors toss the soundtrack of the Rocky Horror Picture Show down the bus toilet.
- March 22 ..... College trip for the Class o'90 hits a snag when Steven Anderson's hotel door is determined to be glued.
- March 24 (p.m.) ..... Justin Maestas is fished out of the water somewhere between Florida and Cuba while searching for his lost dolphin.
- March 27 ..... Spring Break ends; countdown till summer starts.
- March 31 ..... R.E.M. comes to MTSU; Seniors reap untold fortunes from innocent underclassmen.
- April 1 ..... April Fool's Day — Mike O'Hare chosen April Fool '89.
- April 6-28 ..... Froghead terrorizes the campus.
- April 10 ..... Mysterious voice beckoning Dr. Crowell is deduced to be that of Jean from the cafeteria.
- April 13 ..... Father-Son Banquet; although no one is able to remember last year's speaker, this year's speaker proved to be interesting despite worries about themes due the next day.
- April 14-28 ..... Prom construction; possible themes are "Prom in Hell," "Lower Broad," "The Gym," and "Albert Einstein: the Life and Times of a Wife-Swapping Atheist"
- April 29 ..... Prom; the cultural shock between the Oriental theme and the band "Tyrone Smith and the Tel-Stars" is too much for Dr. Niemeyer.
- May 1 ..... May Day; Dr. Crowell initiates the rites of spring.
- May 7 ..... Unofficial end of Whitfest '89 (His parents finally find out.)
- May 13 ..... Steeplechase fulfills everyone's expectations as Lindsey Cooper sits in the fabled "Catbird Seat".
- May 19 ..... AP exams are finished!! . . . and with many seniors gone, the juniors slowly take over the senior parking lot.
- May 23 ..... Four juniors and Coach Owen get tapped into Totomoi.
- May 24 ..... Brett Stahlman orders his car with everything on it.
- May 25-June 1 ..... Second Semester examinations; Juniors show their leadership by flunking their exams.
- May 29-June 1 ..... Senior Trip to Florida; the Class o'89 gets to know Paschall like a brother.
- June 2 ..... Awards Night, a jealous Dr. Crowell gives 40 demerits for long hair.
- June 3 (a.m.) ..... Commencement; a shocker
- June 3-4 (p.m.) ..... Senior party; Fresca on tap and lots o'fun to go around.
- June 5-10 ..... The BELL business staff starts cracking down.

Curly, Larry, and Moe.

Editor's Note

The one word that comes to mind when I try to describe this year at MBA is: change. Although not revolutionary, changes are slowly taking place both here at MBA and around the world as a whole. Here at MBA, we have a new headmaster, Dr. Douglas Paschall, who is starting fresh new traditions at MBA, such as the senior class trip before graduation. Around the world, changes are also taking place; Chinese students are revolting, Castro is losing his power as a communist tool, Gorbachev is democratizing the Soviet Union. Overall, the general trend seems to be to challenge the existing system in favor of a new one.

The BELL has experienced some changes of its own. This year's annual has a much longer Life section, has changed the order of the sections (like sticking the faculty at the end), and is hopefully a little more humorous than in past years. One more specific change is the inclusion of Marion's Liberal and Richie's Conservative Year in Review, an attempt to show the diversity of thought that can exist here on the Hill and to give some more political overtones to the annual. This year, the BELL got a new advisor, a new room, a new computer, and a green staff that knew little or nothing about how to crank out a yearbook, myself included. One goal for this year, therefore, was to train a large number of underclassmen in laying out so that future editors can worry less about just simply getting the yearbook done and can instead concentrate on creativity and can have a little more fun with it. Overall, I think we've succeeded; not only did we train lots of underclassmen, we also relied on them almost completely for this year's book. So to Mr. Moxley, David, Andy, and Charles, who probably each know more now about the yearbook than I ever did, I wish good luck to next year's BELL; and to you four I offer this advice, whether you want it or not:

- Don't rely too much on seniors. They have a tendency to be lazy.
- Get things done as early as possible, especially the mugs, the bios, and the ads.
- Take more advantage of the help Buz has to offer. He'll do a lot if you just ask.

David Strayhorn, your loving and dedicated editor-in-chief

Many thanks to go to the following:

- Mr. Moxley, who probably worked harder than any of the rest of us;
- Andy Coulam, Charles Israel, and David Haslam, for their constant help throughout the entire year;
- Dr. Crowell, for taking care of the manuscript for the dedication to Mr. Novak and for helping in the transition to a new advisor;
- Dr. Paschall, for his advice and his help in getting us a room and a computer;
- Andy Patterson, for his hard work on ads in the last few weeks;
- the entire layout staff;
- Pieter Foster and the rest of the photography staff;
- Hal Jones, for taking over the copy staff at the end of the year;
- all the senior section editors;
- Buz Watson, for all his help;
- everyone else who helped to make the 1989 BELL a reality.
- to Mr. Moxley in particular; keep pestering Dr. Paschall about getting a room that belongs exclusively to the BELL.
- Most importantly: try to be creative, innovative, different, and original, but still try to maintain the classiness and the "tradition" (that's not a four-letter word, is it?) that is always associated with MBA and that makes it special.

W. David Strayhorn, IV

The Class of 1989

The task of a senior class at Montgomery Bell Academy is twofold: to serve as examples of gentlemen, scholars, and athletes, and to lead the student body to success in all extracurricular endeavors. The Class of 1989 has succeeded in both of these tasks.

The exceptionally low number of demerits scored by the class, the high number of national merit scholars, and the continued success of Big Red athletics prove the class's fulfillment of the school's motto. The Class of 1989 also led the student body to success in extracurriculars such as forensics, chorus, publications, and community service.

Such success, though, is not unusual for a class at MBA. The remarkable aspect of the Class of 1989 is the solidarity achieved among the members of the class. Like every class, the Class of '89 has its jocks, its brains, its debaters, its deadheads, its artists, its musicians and so on. Unlike those of most classes, however, the members of this class were not confined to cliques according to their activities. Through the friendships that bond different types of people, the Class of 1989 gained a respect for excellence in any field, not just their own. This respect, combined with a live-and-let-live philosophy, make the Class of 1989 a truly exceptional one.

NFIB Speaks for America's Biggest Business . . . Small Business.

NFIB—the National Federation of Independent Business—brings the concerns and opinions of small and independent business owners to Congress, the federal agencies, the White House and all 50 state capitals.

NFIB is the nation's largest advocacy organization representing small and independent business. With an audited membership of more than 550,000 business owners, NFIB is a melting pot of commercial enterprise: high-tech manufacturers and family farmers, neighborhood retailers and service companies.

We don't take our positions lightly. Members are polled regularly on issues affecting their businesses. The majority response is the position NFIB lobbyists carry from the grass-roots membership directly to federal and state lawmakers.

And we don't stop there. NFIB is a research organization too. NFIB Quarterly Economic Reports accu-ately predict trends in the nation's employment, Gross National Product and inflation.

We've published special studies on small business banking and credit, the major problems and priorities of the small and independent business owner, small business and the financing of workers' compensation, and more.

Small business is America's biggest business, employing more than half the non-government workforce and producing almost half the GNP.

Small business owners are active in civic and political affairs. And we represent more of them than any other business organization.

That is why . . . when America's lawmakers hear from NFIB, they know they've heard from American business.
